

USI Foundation Award Nomination
Outstanding Teaching by an Adjunct Faculty Member 2024

Nomination guidelines: No self-nominations or anonymous nominations are accepted. Nominations may be submitted by any faculty member, alumnus, administrator, or student not currently enrolled in the nominated faculty member's class(es). The nominee must have taught at USI for a minimum of three consecutive semesters, or one semester for three consecutive years, and be a current member of the USI faculty (teaching during the 2023-2024 year).

Nominations are limited to one page. Do not attach additional pages. Nominations are due on November 15, 2023. Return this form to USI.Provost@usi.edu. The award winner will receive a $2,000 cash stipend. No faculty member may receive this award more than once.

Nominee's Name and Department:

If you are a student or an alumnus of USI, in what course(s) did you experience the nominee's teaching? Specify the semester/year.

If you are a faculty member or administrator, are there specific courses in which you have observed the nominee's teaching?

In the space below, explain why you believe the nominee deserves recognition for outstanding teaching.
