

GLOBAL BUSINESS AND FINANCE REVIEW

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Global Business and Finance Review (GBFR) invites authors from the business, government, and academic communities to contribute articles on domestic or international business topics for possible publication in upcoming issues.

GBFR accepts manuscripts from all major disciplines of business (accounting, business law, computer information system, entrepreneurship, finance, international business, management, marketing, and operations research), computer science, economics, healthcare administration, public administration, and global strategies.

The length of the manuscripts should not exceed 40 pages (double spaced), including footnotes, references, appendices, charts, figures, and tables. The margin requirement is one inch on all sides. The cover page should present the title of the manuscript, name(s) of the author(s), affiliation, and contact information. The first page should include the title of the manuscript and an abstract of 150 words or less. Authors should not identify themselves either directly or indirectly in the manuscript.

E-mail a copy of the original paper and mail a hard copy of your paper with the submission fee of US$50 to the Journal Editor: Dr. Jong C. Rhim, Global Business and Finance Review, College of Business, University of Southern Indiana, 8600 University Blvd., Evansville, IN 47712, USA. Telephone: (812) 465-1637; Fax: (812) 465-1044; E-mail: GBFR@usi.edu.

The Global Business and Finance Review is a refereed journal published semiannually in the Spring and Fall. GBFR only considers manuscripts that have been neither published nor accepted for publication elsewhere. GBFR also accepts advertisements and inserts. For further information and subscriptions, write to the editor.
