Court Visitations

One of your requirements is to write a paper on your observations of a true, real live Court in action. You may visit any official court anywhere in the United States and give your observations. The visit must be during this semester. Follow your course syllabus regarding the content and length of the paper, as well as the duration of your court visit.

The following communities usually have courts at night:

Evansville – Monday evenings – 4:30 p.m. until about 6:00 p.m.

Vanderburgh Court Building – second floor

Martin Luther King Blvd.

Mount Vernon – Every other Monday evening – 6:00 p.m. until about 8:00 p.m.

Call first at 838-1325

Coliseum at 311 Second Street

Boonville – Monday evenings – 5:00 p.m. until about 9:00 p.m.

Warrick County Courthouse

Henderson, Kentucky – Wednesday evenings (sometimes)

Henderson County Courthouse – first floor

First and Main
