

Beth Otto

Instructor

Education

- M.A., Learning Disabilities, Truman State University, 1985
- Reading Minor, William Penn University, 1980
- B.A. Elementary Education and Special Education, University of Northern Iowa, 1970

Courses taught:

- EDUC 201, Growth and Development of the Middle Level Learner
- EDUC 306, Teaching Children with Special Needs
- EDUC 398, Balanced Reading Strategies

Presentations:

Teaching Mainstreamed Students with Balanced Reading Strategies,

Indiana State Reading Association, Indianapolis, Indiana, 2004

Enhancing Literacy Development by Reading Aloud

Early Childhood Conference, Evansville, Indiana, 2004

The ABC's of Teaching Reading: Classroom Teachers Impacting Preservice Literacy Instruction

Indiana State Reading Association, Indianapolis, Indiana, 2003

Opening the Gate between Schools and Colleges: Classroom Teachers Impacting Preservice Literacy Instruction

Poster Presentation, International Reading Association Convention, Orlando Florida, 2003

Professional Services

Teacher Education Department, Coordinator of Advising and Recruitment, Fall 2006 - Present

Chairman, Evansville Area Reading Council Conference 2007

Co-chairman, Evansville Area Reading Council Conference, 2006

Co-chairman, Evansville Area Reading Council Conference, 2005

