

Indiana's Historic Pathways

Clark County

Falls of the Ohio State Park and Interpretive Center

201 Riverside Drive, Clarksville 812-280-9970

www.falloftheohio.org

Travel back to when Southern Indiana was covered by a salt water sea as you discover the world-renowned fossil beds that date back 400 million years. There are 220 acres of exposed Devonian fossil beds to explore. The Interpretive Center features a full-size mammoth skeleton, plus there are exhibits on geology, history, and cultural development of the Falls of the Ohio. Two spectacular audiovisual shows are also offered.

Howard Steamboat Museum

1101 East Market Street, Jeffersonville
812-283-3728

www.steamboatmuseum.org

A 22-room, late-Victorian mansion features stained and leaded glass windows, intricate hand-carved and original furnishings. Artifacts and models of famous boats built in the Howard Shipyards are exhibited.

Schimpff's Confectionery

347 Spring Street, Jeffersonville
812-283-8367

www.schimpffs.com

For a taste of nostalgia and to satisfy your sweet tooth, stop by and visit one of Indiana's

"Hidden Treasures" in Jeffersonville. Famous for cinnamon red-hots. Schimpff's is a fourth generation, family-owned business that features a soda fountain, the original tin ceiling, antique memorabilia, and tasty candies.

Old Jeffersonville National Register of Historic Places District

Jeffersonville's central business district, the downtown riverfront, and several adjoining residential blocks are notable for their eclectic assortment of middle- and late- 19th century architecture, which typifies a small Midwestern river city; the central business district, whose spine extends along Spring Street between Court Avenue and Riverside Drive, boasts several distinctive Renaissance Revival, Italianate, and Neoclassical structures; homes range from Federal to Victorian styles; includes many churches.

George Rogers Clark Cabin Homesite and Departure site of the Lewis and Clark Expedition

Harrison & Bailey Avenues,
Clarksville

www.falloftheohio.org

A replica of a cabin built by General George Rogers Clark in 1803. Departure site of the Lewis and Clark Expedition to explore the Louisiana Purchase territory.

Clark-Floyd Counties Convention and Tourism Bureau

315 Southern Indiana Avenue
Jeffersonville, IN 47130 812-280-5566

www.sunnysideoflouisville.org

Crawford County Blue River-Indiana's First Natural Scenic River

Milltown

888-702-2837

www.cavecountrycanoes.com

Considered one of Indiana's purest streams, this spring-fed river provides approximately 30 miles of waterway for fishing, boating, swimming, and canoeing.

Marengo Cave US National Landmark

400 East State Road 64,
Marengo

888-702-2837

www.marengocave.com

Creating wonderful family memories since 1883, the cave offers two walking tours, gemstone mining, the Maze Crawl, a gift shop, walking trails, picnic grounds, and more.

Crawford County Tourism Office

6225 E. Industrial Lane, Ste. A, Leavenworth
812-739-2246

www.crawfordcountyindiana.com

Daviess County Harned House

Contact: Daviess County Chamber of Commerce and Visitor's Bureau 307 Harned Ave., Washington
The Harned House, located one block off of Hwy. U.S. 50, is the former residence of Dr. Harned and is currently a bed and breakfast.

Daviess County Museum

Contact: Daviess County Chamber of Commerce and Visitor's Bureau
212 1/2 East Main Street - Washington.
The Daviess County Museum is housed in the former Masonic Temple approximately one mile off of U.S. Hwy. 50.

Graham Mansion 1885

Contact: Daviess County Chamber of Commerce and Visitor's Bureau
N.W. 1st Street - Washington
The exterior premises of this historic house, the former home of Robert and Roberta Graham, also known as "Mimi's House," can be viewed. Approximately one mile off U.S. Hwy 50.

Maysville Church 1851

Contact: Daviess County Chamber of Commerce and Visitor's Bureau
Come visit a lovely Methodist country church in Washington, located approximately 1/4 mile off of U.S. Hwy.50 in Washington.

Train Depot 1906

Contact: Daviess County Chamber of Commerce and Visitor's Bureau

Situated 3 blocks off of U. S. Hwy. 50, the renovated Old Train Depot is home to the Daviess County Chamber of Commerce and the Daviess County Economic Development Corporation.

Round Barn (1908)

Contact: Daviess County Chamber of Commerce and Visitor's Bureau
Situated on U.S. Hwy 57, approximately four miles south of U.S. 50 Bypass in Washington, the only round barn in the county is a working cattle barn and currently seeking Historic National Register listing.

Daviess County Chamber of Commerce and Visitor Bureau

One Train Depot Street
Mailing address: PO Box 430
Washington, IN 47501 812-254-5262
www.daviesscounty.net

Dearborn County Argosy Casino and Hotel

777 Argosy Parkway, Lawrenceburg
888-Argosy-7 www.pngaming.com Dockside gaming, hotel, and 200,000 square-foot pavilion featuring live entertainment and fine dining.

Perfect North Slopes

19074 Perfect Lane, Lawrenceburg
812-537-3754
www.perfectnorth.com Ski resort featuring skiing, snowboarding, and tubing. Open during winter months.

Hillforest Victorian House Museum

213 5th Street, Aurora 812-926-0087

www.hillforest.org Hillforest is a restored 1855 mansion overlooking the Ohio River. It is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and is a designated National Historic Landmark.

Chateau Pomije Winery

25060 Jacob's Road, Guilford 812-623-3332
www.cpwinery.com
The winery and restaurant occupy a renovated 1891 barn featuring a 7,000-stone fireplace in the main dining room.

Lawrenceburg Speedway

U.S. Highway 50 East Dearborn County Fairgrounds, Lawrenceburg
812-537-5299
www.lawrenceburgspeedway.com
The quarter-mile dirt track features sprint car racing, modifieds, and pro stocks. Open May–September.

Tri-State Antiques Market

Lawrenceburg Fairgrounds
U.S. Highway 50, 1 mile west of Exit 16 on I-275, Lawrenceburg
513-738-7256
www.queencityshows.com Indiana's largest "antiques and vintage-only" market.

Dearborn County Convention, Visitor & Tourism Bureau

320 Walnut Street,
Lawrenceburg
800-322-8198
www.visitsoutheastindiana.com

Dubois County Dubois County Museum

2704 Newton Street, Jasper (located several miles south of Buffalo Trace route) 812-634-7733

Known as the largest county museum in the state of Indiana, this museum showcases the rich German heritage and history of the Dubois County area and features a six-foot-tall, stuffed buffalo named "Trace."

St. Joseph Church

13th & Newton Sts., Jasper (located several miles south of Buffalo Trace route) 812-482-1805
www.saintjosephjasper.com Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, this magnificent 1880 Romanesque, old world style church was built by the early parishioners and showcases priceless German stained-glass windows.

Dubois County Visitors Center

2704 Newton Street, Jasper 1-800-968-4578
www.duboiscounty.org

Floyd County Culbertson Mansion State Historic Site

914 East Main Street, New Albany 812-944-9600
www.in.gov/ism/HistoricSites/Culbertson/Historic.asp A Victorian mansion that stands as an impressive tribute to one of Indiana's leading merchants and philanthropists, William Culbertson.

Carnegie Center for Art and History

201 East Spring Street, New Albany 812-944-7336
www.carnegiecenter.org
An art and history museum, home of the ever-popular

Yenawine Exhibit - a hand carved, animated diorama depicting scenes of life in early Indiana.

Scribner House

106 East Main Street, New Albany
812-949-1776
See evidence from an era long ago. The Scribner House was built in 1813 by the Scribner Family. The first frame house built in New Albany is owned by the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR).

Mansion Row National Register of Historic Places District

Main and Market Streets, New Albany Collection of homes, churches, and distinctive commercial buildings that have been carefully restored, providing a glimpse of life during New Albany's "Age of Elegance." This area includes many bed and breakfasts, wedding chapels, reception halls, and the Culbertson Mansion.

Town Clock Church corner of Third and Main Streets, New Albany

Greek Revival church has been a New Albany landmark since 1852 when it was completed by the congregation of the Second Presbyterian Church; the church is said to have been a way-station on the Underground Railroad before the Civil War, aiding runaways with food, clothing, and other kinds of assistance.

National Cemetery – Located in New Albany on 5.5 acres

1943 Ekin Avenue, 812-948-5234
The New Albany National Cemetery was established in 1862 to accommodate the burial of soldiers posted at the training center. By November 1870, more than 2,000 known dead and 698 unknowns were buried here. Placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1999.

Clark-Floyd Counties Convention and Tourism Bureau

315 Southern Indiana Avenue
Jeffersonville, IN 47130 812-280-5566
www.sunnysideoflouisville.org

Harrison County Buffalo Trace Park

1540 U.S. Hwy 150 NE, Palmyra
812-738-8236
Buffalo Trace Park is a 147 acre park that features a 30 acre man made lake for swimming and fishing, camping, canoe rental, paddle boat rental, lighted walking trail, petting zoo, and much more.

Harrison County Convention and Visitors Bureau

310 N. Elm Street, Corydon 812-738-2138
www.thisisindiana.org

Jackson County Muscatatuck National Wildlife Refuge

12985 East U.S. Hwy 50, Seymour
812-522-4352
muscatatuck@fws.gov
The 7,800-acre national wildlife refuge land and waters are protected and managed for wildlife and its habitat with a special emphasis on waterfowl, migratory birds, and endangered species. Open seven days a week, sunrise to sunset.

Jackson - Washington State Forest/Skyline Drive

1278 East State Road 250,
Brownstown
812-358-2160
jackstfor@hsonline.net
Situated two miles from U. S.
Hwy. 50, the forestry, which encompasses more than 7,000 acres in Jackson County, is part of the knobs topographical region of Southern Indiana and offers scenic views from Skyline Drive and other vistas, hiking, biking, camping, fishing, and horseback riding.

Starve Hollow State Recreation Area

4345 South County Road 275
West, Vallonia
812-358-3464
starvesra@dnr.state.in.us Starve Hollow, which is located 4.5 miles from U.S.
Hwy. 50 near the location of Jackson County's oldest community, Fort Vallonia, was constructed in 1938 and offers a 145 acre lake, fishing, camping, hiking, swimming, and fun.

Seymour's Historic Downtown District

Contact: Greater Seymour
Chamber of Commerce 812-522-3681
www.seymourchamber.org
The historic downtown district of Seymour, which was founded in 1852 and grew up at the intersection of two crossing railroads, is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and includes architecturally significant sites such as the Farmers Club, Southern Indiana Railroad Freighthouse, Presbyterian Church, Carnegie library, as well as the site of the world's first train robbery.

Brownstown's Historic Downtown

Contact: Brownstown
Chamber of Commerce
119 West Walnut Street, Brownstown
812-358-2930
www.brownstownchamber.com Centrally located within Jackson County, Brownstown, the county seat, is also home to the Ball Memorial Museum, Ketchum Pioneer Village,
Marion - Kay Spices Home Office, Jackson County Historical Society, and Jackson County Genealogical Society.

Bell Ford, Shieldstown, and Medora Covered Bridges

Contact: Jackson County Visitor Center
www.jacksoncountyin.com
As you travel U.S. Hwy. 50 in Jackson County, you will be passing near the sites of three covered bridges-Bell Ford (1869) was believed to be the only Post-truss covered bridge remaining in the world; Shieldstown (1876), which uses a multiple King Post design with a Burr Arch Truss system; and Medora (1875), the longest three-span covered bridge in the world.

Jackson County Visitor Center

357 Tanger Blvd., Suite 231
Seymour, IN 47274
812-524-1914 or 888-524-1914 jacksoncountyin@verizon.net
www.jacksoncountyin.com

Jennings County Downtown North Vernon and the Historic Park Theater

Contact: Jennings County
Chamber of Commerce
44 Short Street, North Vernon 812-346-2339
www.JenningsCountyChamber.org

At the turn of the century, North Vernon's railroad system represented the sixth largest railway center with more than 100 trains arriving and departing daily. Visit the Historic Park Theater, a restored 1916 movie house, now home to movies, live entertainment, and festivals.

B & O Depot and Caboose

Contact: Jennings County
Chamber of Commerce
44 Short Street, North Vernon 812-346-2339
www.JenningsCountyChamber.org
The depot and caboose, which are dedicated as a memorial for all those who worked on the railroad, are featured during the Railroad Days festival the second week in June.

Big Oaks National Wildlife Refuge

Contact: Big Oaks National Wildlife Refuge
Joe Robb
1661 JPG Niblo Road,
Madison, IN 47250
812-273-0783
www.fws.gov/midwest/bigoaks/Located in a former U.S. Army proving ground, Big Oaks is the largest National Wildlife Refuge in Indiana. Visitors must go through a safety briefing before entering the refuge. With its limited human access through the years, nature has been well preserved for the wildlife.
Hunting and fishing are permitted with valid licensing and an access permit into the refuge.

Historic Vernon

Contact: Jennings County
Visitors Center
325 North Street Hwy 7, North
Vernon

812-346-4865 or 800-928-3667
www.Jenningsco.org
Situated two miles from U.S.
Hwy. 50, the historic town of Vernon, which is listed in its entirety on the National Register of Historic Places, is the site of the John Hunt Morgan Trail and was an active participant in the Underground Railroad.

Muscatatuck Park/Walnut Grove One Room School

Contact: Jennings County
Visitors Center
325 North Street Hwy 7, North
Vernon
812-346-4865 or 800-928-3667
www.Jenningsco.org Enjoy amenities such as camping, fishing, hiking and mountain-biking trails, basketball and sand volleyball courts, soccer, baseball, and open fields, playground and picnic areas, shelters, wildlife marshes, and bouldering and climbing. The Walnut Grove School is restored to the 1913-1925 time frame and is open for tours.

Hayden Historical Museum

6715 West County Road 20
South, North Vernon 812-346-8212 www.seidata.com/~haydenmu/The building was donated by former Indiana Governor Edgar Whitcomb and his family opened in 1993, the museum features historically-themed rooms such as a typical Indiana kitchen in 1939 and Whitcomb's Governor's Office.

Jennings County Visitors Center

325 North Street Hwy 7, North
Vernon
812-346-4865 or 800-928-3667
www.Jenningsco.org

Knox County George Rogers Clark National Historical Park

401 South Second Street, Vincennes
812-882-1776
www.nps.gov/gero George Rogers Clark's conquest of the Old Northwest Territory is the theme of this national historical park. See the largest memorial outside Washington, D.C.!

Grouseland

3 West Scott Street, Vincennes
812-882-2096
www.grouselandfoundation.org
Home of William Henry Harrison, first governor of the Indiana Territory and ninth president of the United States.
Tour the beautifully restored 1803 mansion.

Vincennes State Historic Sites

1 West Harrison, Vincennes 812-882-7422 www.in.gov/ism/HistoricSites/Vinc ennes Where Indiana began! Tours of the first college, first capitol, first print shop, and more replicate frontier life from 1800-1813.

Old Cathedral Complex

205 Church Street, Vincennes 812-882-5638
Historic Cathedral and French and Indian cemetery. See Indiana's oldest library, founded in 1794, featuring 15th – 19th century books.

Old French House & Indian Museum

First and Seminary, Vincennes 812-882-7886
Home of fur trader Michell Brouillet, built in 1806.

Great example of French Creole architecture.

Indiana Military Museum

2074 North Old Bruceville Road, Vincennes
812-882-8668 Military memorabilia from the Civil War to Desert Storm, featuring vintage tanks, aircraft, and more!

Vincennes/Knox County Convention & Visitor Bureau

102 North Third Street,
Vincennes
800-886-6443
www.vincennescvb.org

Lawrence County Courthouse and Historic Downtown

Bedford
812- 275-4120
Located on U.S. Hwy. 50, downtown Bedford is home to the Lawrence County Courthouse and the Lawrence County Historical and Genealogical Museum of History.

Otis Park and Pinehall

Bedford
Contact: Golf Course 812-279-9092
Parks Department 812-275-5692 Otis Park, located just off U.S.
Hwy. 50 on Tunnelton Road, is home to a golf course, Pine Hall, and the Bandshell. This property is on the National Register of Historic Places.

Bluespring Caverns

1459 Bluespring Caverns
Road, Bedford 812-279-9471
www.bluespringcaverns.com Situated two miles off U.S.
Hwy. 50, Bluespring Caverns is the Nation's Longest Underground River and is open April through October.

Greenhill Cemetery

1202 18th Street, Bedford 812-275-5110

Greenhill Cemetery is a wonderful example of early limestone carving. Walking tours of the cemetery are available

Zahn Historic District

Bedford

Contact: Lawrence County Tourism Commission. The Zahn Historic District, located between 17th and 20th Street on "I" and "J" Streets in Bedford, is home to St. Vincent's Catholic Church, which is made out of Lawrence County limestone.

Leesville

Contact: Lawrence County Tourism Commission. A short distance south of U. S. Hwy. 50, Leesville is home to some of the early settlers of Lawrence County.

Lawrence County Tourism Commission

533 West Main Street
Mitchell, IN 47446
812-849-1090 or 800-798-0769
limestonecountry@verizon.net www.limestonecountry.com

Martin County Jug Rock

U.S. Hwy 50, Shoals
Contact: Martin County Chamber of Commerce
Just off U.S. Hwy 50 at Shoals stands the incredible natural geological sandstone formation, Jug Rock. The formation, which is 60 feet high with a 20-foot diameter base, stands alone with no adjacent ledge. It is classified as one of the most puzzling formations, known as "Stands Rocks," in the United States.

Pinnacle Rock

Contact: Martin County Chamber of Commerce
Among several geological wonders which can be found on West River Road just off U.S. Hwy 50 at Shoals is the astonishingly beautiful Pinnacle Rock, a massive sandstone formation with a vertical descent of over 200 feet.

Martin County Museum

220 Capital Avenue, Shoals 812-247-1133
mchsoc@rtccom.net
Located in the 1876 courthouse which is listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the Martin County Museum is a beautiful example of turn of the century architecture and is filled with a treasure of Martin County history. Open Monday, Wednesday, and Friday 10–4.

Martin State Forest

U.S. Hwy 50, Shoals
812-247-3491
www.in.gov/dnr/forestry/stateforests/martin.htm Scenic rugged hills and vistas can be found at the Martin State Forest. Facilities include a primitive campground, picnic areas and shelter houses, hiking trails, mountain bike trail, fishing, fire tower, and arboretum for tree identification.

Hindustan Falls

Contact: Martin County Chamber of Commerce
Located on the White River, Hindustan Falls was once the site of an 1800s community and pioneer courthouse. A grist mill was once located on a large flat rock at the base of the 10-foot falls. Today, Hindostan Falls is a public fishing and picnic area located on SR 550 just four miles east of Loogootee.

Overlook Park

Contact: Martin County Chamber of Commerce
Situated 1.2 miles west of Shoals at the intersection of U.S. Hwy 50 and SR 450, Overlook Park provides a scenic view of the winding White River and adjacent farms and valleys. Facilities include a shelter house, picnic tables, and restrooms.

Martin County Chamber of Commerce (Limited hours)

210 Line Street, Loogootee 812-295-4093 www.martincountychamber.samsbiz.com Alternate contact: Martin County Museum

Orange County Historic Hotels/ French Lick Resort & Casino

8670 West State Road 56, French Lick
812-936-9300
www.frenchlick.com
Includes the West Baden Springs Hotel and French Lick Springs Hotel, both fully restored to their early 1900s original grandeur. The two hotels offer luxury rooms, fine dining, European spas, beautiful gardens, golf, and other amenities.

Springs Valley Trail (Formerly Tucker Lake) - Buffalo Trace

Contact: Hoosier National Forest, 812-275-5987
www.fs.fed.us/r9/hoosier/Multiple-use trail features scenic views of Springs

Valley Lake and remnants of the Buffalo Trace, a route carved by the hooves of bison and used by Native Americans and early settlers to travel in southern Indiana.

Rise of the Lost River – Orangeville

Contact: French Lick Springs/West Baden Chamber of Commerce Railroad Museum, French Lick 812-936-2405 www.flwbcc.com

The Lost River flows underground 22.5 miles from Orleans to Orangeville. The rise is one of the largest karsts springs found in the Midwestern United States.

This spring is where the Lost River surfaces above ground and continues to flow above ground to the White River.

Quaker Meeting Houses/Newberry and Lick Creek 1813 – Paoli

2153 W. U.S. Hwy 159, Paoli 812-723-2543

The Quakers, who founded Orange County in 1811, and their religion played an important part in the lives of the settlers. They were the first denomination to hold religious services in the county.

Paoli Historic District/Court House, 1800 Iron Bridge

1 Court Street, Paoli 812-723-2411

The Orange County Court House, circa 1850, is one of the finest examples of Greek Revival architecture east of the Mississippi River. It is the second- oldest operating court house in Indiana. The 1800 Iron Bridge, just off the square on South Gospel Street, is one of the few examples of Cleveland Pratt bridges in existence. The openwebbed floor beams are one of the bridge's most unusual design features.

Pioneer Mothers Memorial Forest- Cox Woods

Contact: Hoosier National Forest, 812-275-5987
www.fs.fed.us/r9/hoosier/
This 88-acre tract is the last old-growth forest in Indiana and has been left untouched since 1816.

Orange County Convention and Visitors Bureau

812-936-3418
www.orangecountyin.com

Pike County Prides Creek Park

1045 East County Road 400 North, Petersburg 812-354-6798 250 acres with a 90-acre lake. Camping, fishing, swimming, tennis courts, volleyball, picnicking, and more.

Log Ends Farm Bed & Breakfast

2769 West State Road 56, Petersburg 1-877-LOGENDS Local 354-2192 www.log-ends.com Log Ends is nestled on a working farm. Four guest rooms with private baths are available. An additional cabin that hosts six guests is located on the property. Stay includes hearty farm breakfast.

Pike County Courthouse

801 East Main Street, Petersburg Courthouse is open daily from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. excluding weekends and holidays. A visit to the rotunda is worth a stop. View the larger-than-life bronze bust of hometown native and baseball legend Gil Hodges.

Hornady Park

State Road 56, Petersburg 812-354-8551 Lovely city park affords shelter rentals. Do some fishing in Ashley Lake across the road from the Peter Brenton cabin or run through the new spray park.

Buffalo Trace Historical Marker

State Road 61 North at White River This state marker gives a brief history of where the trace crossed the White River.

Wabash & Erie Canal Historical Marker

East Main Street, Petersburg Commemorative marker at the former site of the historical depot.

Pike County Chamber of Commerce

714 Main Street, Petersburg 812-354-8155 www.pikecountyin.org

Ripley County Versailles State Park

U.S. Highway 50, Versailles 812- 689-6424 http://www.in.gov/dnr/parklake/properties/park_versailles.html Enjoy the beauty of Versailles State Park located on U.S. Hwy. 50 - hike, horseback ride, swim, camp, bike, fish, or relax during the annual Bluegrass Festival.

Milan '54 Basketball Museum (inspiration for the movie "Hoosiers")

Milan Carr Street, Milan 812- 654-2772 www.milan54.org

Come and relive the exciting moments of the Milan '54 Basketball State Championship Game and find out why the story inspired the movie "Hoosiers" at the '54 Basketball Museum, five miles north of U.S. Hwy. 50.

Busching Covered Bridge

Contact: Ripley County Tourism Bureau
Drive back into time and enjoy the view of Laughery Creek as you go over the 1885 Busching Covered Bridge, just off U.S. Hwy. 50 near the Versailles State Park entrance.

Otter Creek Covered Bridge (near Holton)

Contact: Ripley County Tourism Bureau
Less than two miles north of U.S. Hwy. 50 on Co. RD. 850W near Holton, you'll find the Otter Creek Covered Bridge, a great setting for relaxation and a picnic.

Big Oaks National Wildlife Refuge

Contact: Joe Robb
1661 JPG Niblo Road
Madison, IN 47250
812-273-0783
www.fws.gov/midwest/bigoaks/
bigoaks@fws.gov
Located 16 miles south of U.S. Hwy. 50 on U.S.421 on the site of the former Jefferson Proving Grounds, the Refuge is a great place to enjoy hunting or observing wildlife. This site continues into Jennings County.

Tyson Temple United Methodist Church

Corner of Tyson and Adams Street, Versailles 812-689-6976
Situated two blocks north of U.S. Hwy. 50, the Tyson Temple United Methodist Church, dedicated in 1937, is truly a unique church built of materials from around the world, with no nails except those in the pews.

Ripley County Tourism Bureau

102 North Main Street, Versailles 812-689-7431 or 888-747-5394
rctb@ripleycountytourism.com www.ripleycountytourism.com

Washington County Old Mill Canoe Rental & Wildlife Museum

5 W. U.S. Hwy 150, Fredericksburg 812-472-3140
canoe@blueriver.net Enjoy one-and two-day trips along the Blue River. Longer trips are available. Canoe and kayaks are available for rental.

Vinetree Farm Estate Winery

8343 W. Hardinsburg Road, Hardinsburg
812-472-3580
www.vinetreefarm.net
A farm of a different color...red or white. See for yourself what fine wines are made from Indiana-grown grapes. Complimentary wine tasting, gift shop with gallery of watercolor paintings, outdoor seating, and tours on request.

Washington County Tourism Bureau

210 N. Main Street, Salem 812-883-4303
www.washingtoncountytourism.org