

Minor in Criminal Justice Check Sheet

12 hours must be at the 300/400 level*

9 hours of sociology courses can count towards a major in sociology

Required Courses

- Soc 121: Principles of Sociology (This course is now waived for all student)
- Crim141: Intro to Criminal Justice (May substitute CRIM244, CRIM234, or POLLS208.)
- Soc 225: Criminology

Criminal Justice Electives (Select 4 classes,

- Soc 335: Juvenile Delinquency
- Soc 426: Sociology of Deviant Behavior
- Crim200: Special Topics in Criminal Justice
- Pols208: Law, Courts & Justice
- Crim244: Police & Society
- Crim301: Criminal Justice Administration
- Crim302: Criminal Law
- Crim370: Criminal Justice Seminar
- Soc 370: Sociology Seminar: Hate Groups and Hate Crimes
- Crim401: Probation & Parole
- Pols405: Constitutional Law
- Pols406: Constitutional Rights
- Crim489: Independent Study

New Courses Added to the Minor (Count as electives)

- Anth211: Forensic Anthropology
- Crim311: Convict Criminology
- Crim312: Organized Crime
- Crim331: Gender & Crime
- Soc370: Social Construction of Drugs
- Soc370: Social Networks
- Crim403: Violence Against Women
- Crim411: Criminal Procedure (formerly Evidentiary Problems)
- Crim412: Policing Discretion

Diversity Electives (This requirement is now waived for all students)

- Soc 421: Race and Ethnicity
- Soc 431: Gender & Society
- Soc 463: Wealth & Poverty

*Students may substitute one lower division CJS course for an upper division course.

update 4/4/2012