

The University of Southern Indiana
Center for Communal Studies Lecture Series

THURSDAY, APRIL 9th - 6:30 p.m.
Kleymeyer Hall - Liberal Arts Building, USI

Shaker village of Pleasant Hill, Kentucky

A PHOTOGRAPHIC TOUR OF AMERICA'S INTENTIONAL COMMUNITIES

An Illustrated Public Lecture by Dr. Donald E. Janzen

Dr. Janzen has been photographing American historic communal sites (such as Shaker villages and New Harmony) for over 30 years. He is donating his valuable collection of over 12,000 photographs to USI's Rice Library. Tour these communities with Dr. Janzen and learn how photographs can provide insights into intentional communities.

***** QUESTION-AND-ANSWER SESSION FOLLOWS. REFRESHMENTS SERVED. *******

For further information, contact Dr. Matthew Grow, Communal Studies, USI
812-464-1971 or mjgrow@usi.edu