LibGuides

This new, online service utilizing sources including videos, tutorials, RSS feeds, and podcasts offers users numerous ways to learn about conducting scholarly research. LibGuides also includes subject-specific guides providing lists and online links to a variety of resources that focus on a particular topic.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the University of Southern Indiana's LibGuides service. At the top, the USI logo and the text "UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN INDIANA" are visible. Below this, a navigation bar includes "David L. Rice Library Home" and "LibGuides Home". A welcome message reads: "Welcome to LibGuides. Research assistance, subject guides, and useful resources compiled by your friendly librarians. Know what we know - find it in LibGuides!". A search bar is present with the text "Browse All 156 Guides (A-Z) | Search:" and a "Search" button. The main content area is divided into three columns. The left column, titled "Browse by Subject", lists various subjects such as Art, Business and Management, and Law. The middle column, titled "Featured Guides", lists five guides: "How To Cite Your Sources", "Need a Topic?", "Research 101", "Journalism", and "Environmental Science". The right column, titled "Featured - Contact Us", features the USI logo and contact information for the David L. Rice Library. A "Special Notices" section in the middle column announces a new service called LibGuides. At the bottom, there is a "Receive Email Updates" section and a footer with copyright information.

Please watch this short Video for additional information on how to navigate and use LibGuides.
