Sexual assault refers to unwanted sexual acts against or without a person’s consent.

Sexual assault can be a physical, sexual, verbal, or visual act that forces a person to do something against their will.

Most guys don’t commit rape, but every guy can play a vital role in ending sexual and dating violence. Make sure to pick up resources and learn what you and your friends can do every day. Don’t stand on the sidelines.

Speak out! You may hear attitudes and see behaviors that degrade women and promote a culture of violence. Use your voice to take a stand against it.

Understand that a person who is drunk is not legally capable of giving consent. If the other person is not capable of making an informed decision, do not have sex.

One in four female students and one in six male students are sexually violated while earning their degree. For other marginalized groups, the statistics are even more grim. In this program, we take an in-depth look at our culture’s attitudes and responses to sexual violence.

Upcoming Events

4/6: Healthy Relationships Screening, 4-6 p.m. @ RFWC
4/7: Walk a Mile in Her Shoes, Registration @ 5 p.m., Mitchell Auditorium
4/9: No More: USI Stands Against Sexual Violence @ HRL Community Center, 5-7 p.m.
4/14: Laci Green: Taking Down Rape Culture @ Carter Hall, 7-8:30 p.m.