

Evansville's Cooperative MLK Service Days

Day / Date	Event Title	Event Details	Volunteer Opportunities
Monday, January 9- Friday, January 13	Pigs on Parade	Piggy Banks passed around classrooms at UE for bus tokens for the homeless	Contribute to the Piggy Banks, circulate additional Piggy Banks on other campuses and sites.
Thursday January 12th	GattiTown Fundraiser	Volunteer to work contribution night at GattiTown with contributions going to purchase of bus tokens for the homeless. Address: 316 N. Green River Rd. (click for directions)	Work the dinner that night— serve pizzas, collect donations. Work w/students from the Academy for Innovative Studies Time: 11am-8pm
Wednesday- Friday January 11th - 13th	Presentations in EVSC Classrooms	PowerPoint presentations and discussion of Martin Luther King's philosophy and accomplishments, followed by a service activity. Volunteers to help with presentations & service activity (make thank you cards for local veterans, tie blankets, disaster kits).	Learn & do presentations in classrooms, help with service activities Times: [During School Hours] Friday, Jan. 13th Cedar Hall Elementary- 45 minute sessions 7:55am - 2:30pm
Friday-Monday January 13th - 16th	Collection Drive	Collect items for Lucas Place II, new apartments for homeless veterans and their families in Evansville area and Tri-Stare Food Bank. USI staffs: West side store; and some for store on north Green River Rd. UE staffs eastside store and some for store on north Green River Rd. Ivy Tech staffs North side store most days	Staff collection sites at Schnuck's stores in Evansville, pass out fliers, explain the cause, watch the collection boxes & thank donors Times: 10-4 each day
Saturday January 14th CANCELLED	Bicycle Blitz (repair) (Accepting parts donations earlier)	Join volunteers at University of Evansville to help repair bikes for Patchwork Central's bicycle giveaway to the homeless.	Help repair bicycles UE Residence Halls Time: 9am-3pm
Sunday January 15th	Community Read Discussion	Veterans for Peace and USI Center for Social Justice host discussion of Dr. King's views on the Vietnam War/implications for today.	Browning Reading Room B, Evansville-Vanderburgh Central Public Library (located in downtown Evansville)

		Speaker Reverend Gerald Arnold, President of Evansville Chapter of the NAACP	1:30-3:00 p.m.
Sunday-Monday January 15th-16th	Hacienda Gives Back	Eat at Hacienda and support the homeless; proceeds for purchase of bus tokens for the homeless. 1st Avenue—Sunday, Jan. 15th Pearl Drive—Monday, Jan. 16th	Eat at Hacienda! Recruit student/social groups to eat there; pass out coupons. Time: ALL DAY
Monday January 16th	MLK Luncheon Location: HP 1027 Or Forum I of the Wright Administration Bldg.* *hasn't been finalized yet	USI's Multicultural Center hosts luncheon with Glenda Hatchett, former juvenile court judge and authority on youth and social issues, as the keynote speaker. Judge Hatchett will talk with youth groups in the morning prior to the luncheon (when service activities will be taking place) and w/ USI student leaders after the luncheon for an in-depth Q&A session.	Assist with service activity; making tie blankets with the children in USI UC bldg. Time: 9-11am <hr/> Attend Luncheon (Tickets needed, obtain from USI Multicultural Center). Time: 11am-1pm Attend Q & A Time: 1-3pm
Monday January 16th	MLK March & Lecture	The University of Evansville hosts annual MLK march through the east side of Evansville, followed by a lecture on the UE campus. Displays/presentations on service activities accompanied by collection for Lucas Place II.	1:00 p.m March from fathletic building, Walnut St. 1:30 Talk for Peace 6:30 Display of Projects/Collection 7:00 p.m. Speaker Robiaun Charles Ridgeway University Center
Monday January 16th	Collection Drive USI/KY Wesleyan Basketball Game	Collection of items for Lucas Place II for homeless veterans & clothing for EVSC clothing bank.	Staff collection at sites Time: 7:30-10pm During Evening Game