NKU RECEIVES OVERALL GLVC SAAC SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

INDIANAPOLIS – The Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC) has announced the team recipients of the GLVC Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) Team Sportsmanship Awards for the spring season and the winner of the annual GLVC SAAC Overall Sportsmanship Award. Bellarmine’s women’s tennis and women’s outdoor track and field teams, Northern Kentucky’s men’s golf and baseball teams, Southern Indiana’s women’s golf, men’s tennis and softball teams and UIndy’s men’s outdoor track and field team were honored by their peers as best displaying ‘Good Sportsmanship’ during the 2008 season.

The SAAC Sportsmanship Award is determined by votes of the 14 GLVC member institutions’ campus SAACs. The committees select their top three choices in each sport and base their decision on their view of sportsmanship. The GLVC sponsors the award in each of the league’s 17 championship sports.

The institution with the highest percentage of teams represented in the voting following the conclusion of the 2007-08 academic year is named the overall sportsmanship recipient. Northern Kentucky University, which claimed team awards in men’s cross country, women’s basketball, men’s golf and baseball in 2007-08, is this year’s recipient of the overall award.

The overall and team sportsmanship award winners will be recognized at the 2008 Enterprise Rent-A-Car/GLVC Spring Banquet in St. Louis on May 20.
