Screaming Eagles Game Notes

- Stein closing in on record. Head Coach Rick Stein needs just three wins to surpass former Head Coach Chancellor Dugan for first place on the program's all-time wins list. Stein, who has been a part in 317 victories during his stay at USI, has put up 158 victories in his nine-plus years at the helm of the USI women's basketball program. Stein reached his 100th career victory in just 151 games, making him the fastest coach in the program's history to accomplish that feat.
- USI likes its home cooking. USI spent nearly a month away from the friendly confines of the Physical Activities Center before Saturday night's victory over Illinois-Springfield. The Eagles have enjoyed their time at the PAC, posting a 3-0 record this season.

- USI to be a part of NCAA's Indiana Basketball Extravaganza. The Screaming Eagles' game with Truman State Monday will be a part of the NCAA's Indiana Basketball Extravaganza—11 games in four days. The USI-Truman State contest will be the first of three games that the NCAA's Howard Smith and Ryan Powell (from the Double-a-Zone, the official blog of the NCAA) will see on December 22, the final date of the four-day tour.
- USI collects 19 offensive rebounds against Illinois-Springfield. The Eagles' collected 19 offensive rebounds in their 62-55 win over the Prairie Stars, marking the second-most offensive boards they have collected this season. In nine games this year, USI has recorded at least 12 offensive rebounds in seven contests. USI ranks third in the GLVC with 14.1 offensive rebounds per game.
- Wins & losses like night and day. There is a distinct statistical difference between USI's wins and USI's losses:
When the Eagles are victorious. USI is shooting 42.2 percent from the field and is averaging 79.2 points and 42.8 rebounds per game compared to the 65.6 points and 37.0 rebounds the opposition is putting up. The Eagles also have five players averaging in double-figures in their victories.
When the Eagles lose. USI is shooting 32.9 percent from the field and is averaging 59.0 points and 33.2 rebounds per game compared to the 73.5 points and 42.2 rebounds the opposition is putting up. Just two USI players are averaging in double-figures in USI's losses.
- Evans gaining high marks Senior forward/center Ninette Evans has been gaining high marks in USI's last three games. She scored a career-high 16 points while bringing down nine rebounds in USI's loss to Lewis. She brought down a season-high 12 rebounds in USI's victory over Illinois-Springfield Saturday evening and is currently averaging 4.6 points and 4.8 rebounds per game this year.
- Leeberg notches season-best six points against Illinois-Springfield. Freshman guard Cootie Leeberg racked up a season-high six points in USI's win over the Prairie Stars. Leeberg's points came at a critical juncture of the contest as she scored all six points in a one-minute span that saw USI extend a one-point advantage to seven points with 14 minutes to play in the game.
- USI has had five players reach double figures twice in 2008-09. Five USI players reached double figures in the scoring column in two games this season. USI had five players reach double digits in its 79-55 victory over Mid-Continent and its 87-62 win over Grace. The Eagles had only one game in 2007-08 in which five of their players recorded 10 or more points.
- 20-point plateau. The Eagles have had three players reach the 20-point plateau this year.
