Screaming Eagles Game Notes

- Stein closing in on record. Head Coach Rick Stein needs just three wins to surpass former Head Coach Chancellor Dugan for first place on the program's all-time wins list. Stein, who has been a part in 316 victories during his stay at USI, has put up 157 victories in his nine-plus years at the helm of the USI women's basketball program. Stein reached his 100th career victory in just 151 games, making him the fastest coach in the program's history to accomplish that feat.
- Welcome back to the PAC. For the first time in nearly a month, the University of Southern Indiana women's basketball team will play in the Physical Activities Center. USI, which has been idle for the last two weeks, has played just two home games in its first eight outings and has not played in the PAC since November 24.

- USI to be a part of NCAA's Indiana Basketball Extravaganza. The Screaming Eagles' game with Truman State Monday will be a part of the NCAA's Indiana Basketball Extravaganza—11 games in four days. The USI-Truman State contest will be the first of three games that the NCAA's Howard Smith and Ryan Powell (from the Double-a-Zone, the official blog of the NCAA) will see on December 22, the final date of the four-day tour.
- USI goes 0-2 in first GLVC road trip. The Eagles were 0-2 in their first GLVC road trip despite dominating the first half in both contests. USI built a 10-point lead in the first 20 minutes against Lewis, and had a 17-point lead in the first period against Wisconsin-Parkside. Though the Eagles went into the break with halftime advantages, they struggled in the second half of both games as both Lewis and UW-Parkside rallied to upend the Eagles.
Tale of two halves against Lewis. USI held the Flyers to a 34.5 percent shooting clip in the first period, but Lewis hit 17-of-29 (.586) shots in the second half to overcome a halftime deficit and defeat the Eagles, 69-61.
Tale of two halves against UW-Parkside. The Eagles connected on 16 of their 26 shots from the field in the first half against UW-Parkside, but were just 8-of-29 from the field in the second half as the Rangers rallied from a 17-point deficit to defeat USI, 75-67.
- Wins & losses like night and day. There is a distinct statistical difference between USI's wins and USI's losses:
When the Eagles are victorious. USI is shooting 45.1 percent from the field and is averaging 84.2 points and 43.2 rebounds per game compared to the 68.2 points and 37.2 rebounds the opposition is putting up. The Eagles also have six players averaging in double-figures in their victories.
When the Eagles lose. USI is shooting 32.9 percent from the field and is averaging 59.0 points and 33.2 rebounds per game compared to the 73.5 points and 42.2 rebounds the opposition is putting up. Just two USI players are averaging in double-figures in USI's losses.
- Evans notches career-best against Lewis. Senior forward/center Ninette Evans scored a career-high 16 points while bringing down a season-best nine rebounds in USI's loss to Lewis. Evans is averaging 5.1 points and 3.9 rebounds per game this year and has reached double figures in the scoring column twice this season.
- Young reaches 20-point plateau. Sophomore guard Ellen Young reached the 20-point plateau for the first time this season in USI's setback to Wisconsin-Parkside. Young currently leads the Eagles with 14.4 points per game and has reached double-figures in the scoring column in all but one game this season.
- USI has had five players reach double figures twice in 2008-09. Five USI players reached double figures in the scoring column in two games this season. USI had five players reach double digits in its 79-55 victory over Mid-Continent and its 87-62 win over Grace. The Eagles had only one game in 2007-08 in which five of their players recorded 10 or more points.
- 20-point plateau. The Eagles have had three players reach the 20-point plateau this year. Sophomore guard Lauren Meneghetti had a career-best 26 points against Southeastern Oklahoma State, while senior forward/center Brittany Neuman had a career-high 24 points against Edinboro and junior guard Ellen Young had a season-best 20 points against Wisconsin-Parkside.
- Eagles ranked in the GLVC (as of a.m. 12/17/08). The Eagles have six players ranked in 10 GLVC statistical categories:
Lauren Meneghetti (4 categories) is 10th in three-point field goal percentage (.433), is tied for 10th in steals (1.9 spg), is 14th in made three-pointers per game (1.6), and is 28th in scoring (11.9 ppg);

- Neuman earns GLVC Player of the Week honors. Senior forward/center Brittany Neuman was named the GLVC Player of the Week for her performance against Edinboro. Neuman, who was 9-of-11 from the floor and 6-of-6 from the free throw line, finished the game with a career-high 24 points and 13 rebounds as the Eagles defeated the Fighting Scots, 88-80.
- Eagles picked fourth in GLVC West Division. USI was picked to finish fourth in the GLVC West Division. The Eagles received 13 points in the poll to edge Missouri-St. Louis, who was picked fifth. Drury received three first-place votes as it was picked first, while Quincy had two first-place votes and was picked second. Missouri S&T had one first-place vote and was picked third, while Rockhurst rounded out the poll in sixth.

Defending NCAA II National Champion Northern Kentucky was top vote-getter with six first-place votes in the GLVC East Division, while Indianapolis received the remaining first-place vote and was tabbed for a second-place finish. Bellarmine, Lewis, Wisconsin-Parkside, Kentucky Wesleyan, and Saint Joseph's rounded out the East Division Poll.

- Magic Mark: 75 points. The Eagles have won 76 of their last 86 games when scoring at least 75 points. Of those 10 losses, six have come at the hands of Bellarmine University. USI is 176-17 (.912) since 1996-97 when reaching the 75-point plateau.
