The USI men's and women's basketball teams have combined for 16 20-win seasons in the past 10 years. The men's squad has a string of 11-straight 20-win seasons going into the 2003-04 season. The women's team set the school record for wins in a season with 30 in 1997.

USI basketball has had 16 teams appear in the NCAA Division II Tournament the last 10 years. The women's team made its second trip to the NCAA II Elite Eight in 2001 and appeared in the finals in 1997. The men's team, which won the University's first national title in 1995 and was the in the finals in 1994, has been to "the dance" 10 times in the last 11 seasons.

The USI men's team has been ranked nationally each season since 1994 while the women's team has been nationally ranked eight of the last nine seasons.

The Screaming Eagles fans have seen 11 All-Americans, 32 All-GLVC performers, and six GLVC Players of the Year at the PAC.

With the help of our fans, USI has won 79.3 percent of its games at the PAC, with the men posting an amazing 163-9 (.656) record at the PAC since 1992-93. The fans also have been a part of five NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals at the PAC.
