Your application was selected for review in a process called “Verification.” The law allows the U.S. Department of Education the right to ask you for this information before awarding Federal Aid and has required that we verify your High School Completion Status.

Instructions: Provide one of the following documents that indicate your high school completion status when you will begin college in 2014–2015:

- A copy of your high school diploma
- A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded
- A copy of your General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript
- An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor’s degree
- If state law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If state law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

If you are unable to obtain the documentation listed above, you must contact the financial aid office.

Important: Remember to include your name and student ID number on all documentation.
