Art show featuring works by USI seniors

“USI Senior Seminar Show” will open at New Harmony Gallery of Contemporary Art Saturday, January 11.

With a lively mix of artistic approaches and philosophies, the show will feature works by 45 graduating seniors in the USI Art Department. The students each contributed one piece in their area of concentration for the exhibit. All fields will be represented.

Exhibiting in the seminar show is a requirement of the Senior Art Seminar, a course for art and art education majors that combines discussion of aesthetic issues and trends in the visual arts with practical knowledge and evaluation of student artistic growth and potential.

“USI Senior Seminar Show” will continue through February 9. A free reception for the artists will be held from 5 to 7 p.m. January 18 at the gallery that is located at 506 Main St. in New Harmony. Participating students include:

Grant to aid increased opportunities

University of Southern Indiana’s Office of Career Services and Placement has received a $5,000 matching grant to increase and expand internship opportunities for USI students.

The grant is made possible by Indiana INTERNnet. It will help support several of the office’s initiatives, including:

- New brochures and information packets explaining the benefits of internships
- Special promotion of internships at two annual recruiting events: the Career Search Job and Graduate School Fair, and the Internship-Co-op Job Fair
- Employer open houses for companies and organizations considering implementing internship programs
- A female and minority internship workshop to promote engineering and other nontraditional careers for women and minorities.

According to Jennifer Kellams, director of Career Services and Placement, the grant is helpful in reaching an important goal of the office to expand internship opportunities for University students.

Indiana INTERNnet is a collaborative effort between the Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce, University of Indianapolis, and other higher education institutions to expand and increase the quality and quantity of internships and experiential-learning programs in the state of Indiana.

Achievements

Steve Bridges, controller and assistant director of the Business Office, will continue to serve on the Audit Committee of the Central Association of College and University Business Officers. The nonprofit association represents chief business officers at more than 700 institutions throughout the North Central region of the United States. It promotes sound principles and practices of educational business administration through both professional development programs and concerted actions in matters affecting the financial health of institutions of higher learning.

Dr. Peggy F. Harrel, director of Graduate Studies and Sponsored Research, has been selected to serve a three-year term as editor-in-chief of the Journal of Research Administration, the quarterly peer review journal of the Society of Research Administrators International.

Dr. Raymond Leung, assistant professor of physical education, has published a research study, “An Assessment of the Validity and Reliability of Two Perceived Exertion Rating Scales among Hong Kong Children,” in the Perceptual and Motor Skills Journal (95, pp. 1047-1062, 2002). This research was a result of a collaborative effort with Dr. Mee-lee Leung, Physical Education Department, Hong Kong Baptist University; and Dr. Pak-kwong Chung, Elite Training Group, Hong Kong Sports Development Board.

Congratulations

Robert Ann LeRoy, senior administrative assistant in Student Financial Assistance, and William Craig Drone were married December 28 in Evansville. The new Mrs. Drone is the daughter of Regenia A. Schneider, senior accounting assistant in the Bursar’s Office.

FYI

January Jumpstart

Spring 2003 classes begin Monday, January 13, and Student Development encourages USI employees to participate in its “January Jumpstart” initiative welcoming students to campus.

Employees are asked to greet new members of the University community by wearing their “Welcome Students” buttons, and offices can catch the spirit by displaying welcoming signs and posters. For more information, call extension 7167.

ACTF performances

Remaining public performances by colleges and universities in the 35th annual Region III Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival will be presented Friday and Saturday, January 10-11, at The Center in downtown Evansville.

Shows will be staged at 1 and 9 p.m. each day in the following order: Hamlet, The Laramie Project, Kumashakana As or The Red Feather, and Fuddy Meers.

General admission is $5 per show. Tickets will be sold at the door. USI is the host school for this year’s festival, and Fifth Third Bank is the sponsor. For more information, call extension 1026.
