USI Athletic Hall of Fame
Nomination Criteria

Individual Honoree
The qualifications to be inducted as an individual former student athlete into the University of Southern Indiana Athletic Hall of Fame are as follows:
A. A candidate must have participated as a student/athlete at USI for at least two years.
B. A candidate must have made a substantial impact on the team that he/she participated on or have been recognized for achievement (such as All Conference, All American, National Champion).
C. A candidate must have graduated from USI, unless compelling circumstances exist.
D. A candidate is eligible on the 10th year after completing his/her last season as a USI student athlete.
E. A candidate may be inducted posthumously (10-year rule may be waived by a three-fourths vote of the USIAHF committee).
F. A candidate may be nominated and considered for post-graduate achievements.

Team Honor
The qualifications for a team to be inducted into the University of Southern Indiana Athletic Hall of Fame are as follows:
A. A team must have achieved a high degree of success.
B. A team must have made a substantial contribution to the prestige of the University (such as a National Championship, Regional Championship).
C. A team is eligible for induction on the 10th year since the team last competed.

Coach or Administrator honorees
The qualifications to be inducted as individual Coach or Administrator honorees into the University of Southern Indiana Athletic Hall of Fame are as follows:
A. A candidate must have served the University for at least four years.
B. A candidate must have made a substantial impact and brought credit to the athletic program at USI and to the University.
C. A candidate must no longer be employed by USI (rule may be waived by a three-fourths vote of the USIAHF committee).
D. A candidate is eligible on the second year following his/her departure or retirement from the University or death.
E. A candidate may be inducted posthumously (two-year rule may be waived by a three-fourths vote of the USIAHF committee).

Special Individuals
The committee can use this provision if it wishes to honor a special individual who has distinguished him/herself and has had a substantial influence on the athletics program at USI. Such individuals (i.e., Varsity Club members) would be eligible to be inducted in this classification to the University of Southern Indiana Athletic Hall of Fame.
