

Student Support Services

Information Card

USI.edu/studentsupportservices

Program Objectives

Help students:

- achieve good academic standing
- persist from one academic year to the next
- graduate from USI with a bachelor's degree

Program Eligibility

USI enrolled students who meet U.S. citizenship or residency requirements, have an academic need and meet ONE of the following criteria:

- first-generation college student
- income eligibility
- documented disability

Program Services

- academic advising
- peer coaching and mentoring
- academic monitoring and coaching
- cultural enrichment activities
- financial counseling
- learning and career assessments
- personal and career guidance
- student leadership opportunities

Student Support Services

University Division, ED 1142
University of Southern Indiana
8600 University Boulevard
Evansville, Indiana 47712

812-465-1606 • 812-461-5367 fax

USI.edu/studentssupportservices

Student Support Services is a federal grant program that serves 140 eligible participants and is funded annually through the U.S. Department of Education.