374 Pueblo Pass San Antonia, Texas, 87630 812-464-5000 mrquinn@mail.usi

Mani Quinn

Objective To obtain a student nurse internship in critical care

Education University of Southern Indiana Evansville, IN Bachelor of Science in Nursing May 2011

Clinical Experience St. Sophie Hospital Macy, IN 2009-2011

Critical Care, 220 hours

- Administered vasopressors, such as Levphed
- Aided in the preservation of organs under IOPO
- Performed mouth care on ventilated patient
- Observed process of dialysis, including placement of dialysis catheter
- Collaborated with ICU nurses in code blue
- Developed therapeutic relationship with newly diagnosed terminally ill patient

Other Rotations – Pediatrics, Oncology/Pulmonology, Mental Health, Geriatric, Cardiovascular Med- Surgical total 650 hours

- Calculated proper medication dosing for three patients
- Assisted pediatric intensive care
- Observed process of blood and Chemotherapy administration
- Administered arrhythmia and hypertensive drugs daily
- Aided in care of patient with ICD
- Observed a thoracentesis and removal of chest tubes

Work Experience

Deaconess Hospital Student Externship Summer 2010

- Improved organizational skills while caring for up to five patients
- Certified in IV therapy
- Replaced ostomy bag on abnormal stoma with WOC nurse

Deaconess Hospital Dietary Jan. –Dec. 2009

- Prepared and served food trays
- Led evening crew as line leader

Awards/ Memberships

Deaconess Hospital Foundation Nursing Scholarship

National Student Nurse Assoc.

Committee chair American Diabetes Assoc. Walk

Committee chair spring fundraiser, earning $2,000

SAMPLE