

Summer 2025 Screagle Simulation Station Contract

After you read the Screagle Simulation Q & A below, please sign and submit the contract for EDUC 493.

Q: What do I have to do this Summer 2025 semester for Screagle Simulation?	A: For your Screagle Simulation experience, you will create and teach a lesson plan. This lesson will focus on the Five Pillars of Reading, and will utilize the content area book you've selected for this course.
Q: How long does my lesson have to be for Screagle Simulation?	A: Your lesson plan will be based on the grade/subject area of your choice and should take approximately 10-12 minutes to teach.
Q: Is there a certain format I need to follow for my lesson plan?	A: You will use the Screagle Simulation lesson plan template. You will create and design your own lesson plan.
Q: Where will I submit my Screagle Simulation lesson plan?	A: You will submit your lesson plan to your instructor (and/or upload using Google Forms provided here . (link on Black Board)
Q: When do I need to submit my lesson plan?	A: Considering the condensed format of this summer class, you will submit your lesson ONE week prior to your scheduled session. Failure to submit your lesson plan one week prior to your session will result in a disposition infraction.
Q: Do I need to dress professionally for my session? For Summer 2025 class, where do I conduct my session?	A: We encourage you to dress professionally for your Screagle Simulation session. A: You may conduct your Screagle Simulation session on campus in the Screagle Simulation room if you choose. You have the option of completing your screagle simulation at another location (ie—home) due to the nature of a summer asynchronous class, but you are still required to have a professional dress—and a neat, tidy, and appropriate location to conduct your screagle simulation session with appropriate presentation for your lesson.
Q: When can I schedule my session?	A: You will receive an email once scheduling is open for the summer semester. Sessions will take place July 28-30. These dates are the only time this will be offered. The deadline to schedule your session is determined by your instructor. Failure to schedule your session by the deadline will result in a professional disposition alert and/or consequences determined by your instructor.
Q: Where do I schedule my session?	A: You will receive an email inviting you to create a Mursion account. You will schedule your session on the Mursion site. *Follow the directions on the website found here .

Q: Once I have scheduled my session, am I allowed to cancel it and reschedule for a different date/time?	A: You are not allowed to change or reschedule your session without permission. You are only allowed to change the time/date of your session for extreme circumstances after receiving approval from your instructor and Dr. Mary Ann Cahill.
Q: What happens if I don't show up for my Screagle Simulation session?	A: Failure to uphold your scheduled date and time will result in a professional disposition infraction and a zero on this assignment.
Q: Do I receive session feedback?	A: You will receive a recording of your session. You must submit your recording to your instructor (with reflection) for feedback and a grade.
Q: Is there anything else I need to know to help prepare for my session?	A: The Screagle Simulation Infoguide has everything you need to know about your session!
Q: Who should I talk to if I have a question about scheduling my session?	A: All questions should be directed to Ms. Kearney Robinson at krobinson1@usi.edu or 812.228.5085.
