The Continue the Tradition Award provides a tuition fee waiver in the form of an exemption which will net out-of-state tuition down to in-state rates. Non-Indiana residents who are admissible to USI and have a parent (biological or adopted) or grandparent that has earned a Bachelor's, Masters or Doctorate degree from USI are eligible for this waiver. Eligibility is restricted to recipients who begin studies in fall 2016 and forward.

Eligibility criteria:

1. Student meets University minimum standards for acceptance and must be eligible for the Continue the Tradition Award program at the time of acceptance.
2. Out-of-state eligible recipients will be charged out-of-state rates and an exemption fee waiver will be applied to net tuition down to in-state rates.
3. Student must remain in good academic standing. If the student fails to meet minimum academic standards and is placed on academic probation (typically for one term), he/she is still eligible to receive the fee waiver during the probationary period.
4. Provisionally readmitted students do not qualify for this award.
5. May be combined with other freshman scholarships that do not net down out-of-state tuition fees
6. Eligibility extends to the first undergraduate degree is completed
7. Recipients must be degree seeking
