COURSE DESCRIPTION
A lecture-discussion-practicum class emphasizing identification of goals and processes of professional development through career planning. Related job-market issues of concern to senior business students also are addressed. Prereq: BCOM 231 and senior standing.

In other terms, this class is a workshop that is designed for your benefit. Students are given extensive time and information from a professional recruiter (the instructor). The goal is to prepare students for interviews and for evaluating companies and job offers.

SKILL DEVELOPMENT & LEARNING OBJECTIVES
This course will help to develop written and oral communication skills. To that end, after completing this course, the student will be able to:
1. Prepare a targeted, career-oriented resume, cover letter and reference list.
2. Articulate a thorough employer analysis report.
3. Successfully participate in a mock employment interview.
Course Expectations

This class is self-paced in the sense that all modules are open on the first day of the term. A student could work ahead if they choose to do so. If you work ahead, please know that I may not be able to give feedback in the form of comments on the assignment or grade the assignment at that time. I have spaced out deadlines in your class, as well as the other classes I teach at the same time to be able to deliver timely feedback to all of my 200+ students per semester.

Students are responsible for submitting complete and correct assignment files. Multiple submissions are allowed until the deadline. Students are solely responsible for complete and correct submissions. Uploads using .pdf format are generally most successful.

On the other side of that statement, it is important for students to understand that deadlines are firm and late work will not be accepted for any reason.

Communication Guidelines

Netiquette

All class communications and interactions with other students and the professor should follow common social standards for respect and courtesy. Learn about the USI Netiquette Guidelines for Online Students so that you can get the most out of your class. Visit http://www.usi.edu/onlinelearning/students/netiquette/ for more information.

Communication Expectation

The primary method of communication between students and the professor for this class is email. Email is not answered on a 24/7 timeframe; rather, it is answered during standard business hours only (Monday-Friday, 9-5). Additionally, it is answered in the order it is received. Please do not wait to the last minute to make requests or ask questions via email, as they may not be answered according to your time constraints. Email messages not composed in a professional manner (proper grammar, mechanics, formatting and professionalism) will be deleted without response. Emails MUST have an informative subject line, proper greeting, signature block, and appropriate editing/grammar/writing in order to receive a response.

Blackboard Course Site Overview

This course is organized into five modules. They should be completed in the order they are posted. It is important to review the due dates and time commitments involved in each learning activity and assignment as you plan your work for this term.

Technical Requirements

1. A Reliable Computer: a dedicated computer with an updated operating system, such as Windows 7 or later, or Mac OSX.

Academic Integrity
Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in the academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of dishonesty including, but not limited to, plagiarism and/or cheating on an examination will be subject to disciplinary action. For more information, please visit Academic Integrity Policies and Procedures.

SafeAssign
Plagiarism and cheating constitute academic misconduct and can result in both a grade penalty imposed by the instructor and disciplinary action including suspension or expulsion. As part of their responsibility to uphold the Student Code of Conduct, instructors reserve the right to have papers submitted through SafeAssign to check for plagiarism against a database of papers submitted previously at USI, a national database of papers, and the Internet. Self-plagiarism can also occur when you plagiarize yourself if you submit for credit a piece of work that is the same or substantially similar to work for which you have already gained or intend to gain university credit, at this or any other university. To avoid self-plagiarism, you must have prior permission from the relevant instructor(s), and give full attribution to the source (i.e you yourself). SafeAssign can be used to check against any earlier submitted student assignments or presentations.

Civility Statement
The University of Southern Indiana embraces and celebrates the many differences that exist among the members of a dynamic, intellectual, and inclusive community, and strives to maintain an environment that respects differences and provides a sense of belonging and inclusion for everyone. Any form of discrimination or harassment, including sexual harassment and sexual misconduct, will not be tolerated. All members of the University community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not infringe upon the rights of others, and should be aware that the University is prepared to take prompt action to prevent and correct such inappropriate behavior and to remedy its effects. For more information, please visit http://www.usi.edu/policies/handbook/civil-rights-sexual-misconduct.

Students who receive an accommodation letter from Disability Resources are encouraged to discuss the provisions of those accommodations with their professors before or during the first week of the semester. If you will be in an internship, field, clinical, student teaching, or other off-campus setting this semester please note that approved academic accommodations may not apply. Please contact Disability Resources.

Class Withdrawal & Incomplete Policy
It is the student’s responsibility to officially drop/withdraw from any courses before the deadline. The university does not withdraw students from any classes. Please refer to the USI Academic Calendar (https://www.usi.edu/registrar/academic-calendar) for specific dates. For more information, please visit Registrar’s Office Schedule Changes
Under special circumstances, students may petition for an incomplete grade. However, it is up to the course instructor to decide if an incomplete will be granted. Students receiving an incomplete grade will need to complete all course requirements by the agreed deadline to avoid an “F” grade.

Title IX, Sexual Assault and Gender Violence Policy
USI does not tolerate acts of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment and all forms of sexual violence. If you have experienced sexual misconduct, or know someone who has, the University can help. It is important to know that federal regulations and University policy require faculty to promptly report incidences of potential sexual misconduct known to them to the Title IX Coordinator to ensure that appropriate measures are taken and resources are made available. The University will work with you to protect your privacy by sharing information with only those who need to know to ensure we can respond and assist. If you are seeking help and would like to speak to someone confidentially, you can make an appointment with a counselor in the University Counseling Center. Find more information about sexual violence, including campus and community resources at www.usi.edu/stopsexualassault
