*To be a preceptor, you must be licensed and have actively used that license 2 of the 3 preceding years. A person licensed and having used that license for a full 2 years prior to applying to be a preceptor would meet that criteria.

This project is supported by the University of Southern Indiana's Geriatrics Workforce Enhancement Program (GWEP) funded by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

Proud partners are University of Southern Indiana, Deaconess Clinic, Generations and SWIRCA & More.
