

Morning Breakout Sessions:

A Journey into Understanding Race and Diversity

Abstract: This break-out session will explore the multifaceted landscape of diversity, focusing on the complex dimensions of race and its implications by focusing on societal evolution, acknowledging the challenges and opportunities it presents. This session will also deepen the attendee's comprehension of race, how to foster inclusivity, and navigate the complexities of diversity with empathy and cultural humility.

Presenter: Cedralia Ellis, MSDW, LCSW

Religion and Professional Ethics

Learning Objective:

1. Examine several key questions and issues with respect to navigating religious beliefs and social work.
2. Critically engage contemporary issues of cultural diversity from the perspective of religious faith.

Abstract: This session explores the role of one's religion in relation to social work and the challenges of cultural diversity.

Presenter: Dr. Valerie Stein, ThD