

Religion and Professional Ethics

Learning Objective:

1. Examine several key questions and issues with respect to navigating religious beliefs and social work.
2. Critically engage contemporary issues of cultural diversity from the perspective of religious faith.

Abstract: This session explores the role of one's religion in relation to social work and the challenges of cultural diversity.

Presenter: Dr. Valerie Stein, ThD