

Confidentiality Agreement

As a condition of and in consideration of my use, access, and/or disclosure of confidential personal health information, I, _____ understand and agree to the following:

1. I will access, use, and disclose confidential personal health information only as necessary to perform my job functions. This means, among other things, that:
 - a) I will only access, use, and disclose confidential personal health information which I have authorization to access, use, and disclose which is required to do my job;
 - b) I will not in any way access, use, divulge, copy, release, sell, loan, review, alter, or destroy any confidential personal health information except as properly and clearly authorized within the scope of my job and as in accordance with all applicable University of Southern Indiana and Kinney College policies and procedures and with all applicable laws;
 - c) I will report to my supervisor or to the appropriate office any individual's or entity's activities that I suspect may compromise the confidentiality of confidential personal health information.

2. I understand that it is my responsibility to be aware of University of Southern Indiana and Kinney College policies that specifically address the handling of confidential information and misconduct that warrants immediate termination or dismissal.

3. I understand that any fraudulent application, violation of confidentiality or any violation of the above provisions may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment or dismissal from my educational program. In addition, federal penalties for privacy violations can result in fines up to $250,000 and prison sentences of up to 10 years.

My signature below indicates that I have read, accept and agree to abide by all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and agree to be bound by it.

Confidentiality Policy

As a member of the University of Southern Indiana Kinney College of Nursing and Health Professions workforce, you may have access to confidential personal health information. The purpose of this agreement is to help you understand your duty regarding confidential personal health information as described in this policy. Members of the Kinney College workforce include, but are not limited to, faculty, staff, students and volunteers.

Measures must be taken so that all information received, maintained, or utilized by the Kinney College and any of its off-site affiliates can only be accessed by authorized users. Kinney College has a legal and ethical responsibility to safeguard the privacy and to protect the confidentiality of health information and all other types of confidential information. Health information is confidential information regardless of how it is obtained, stored, utilized or disclosed.

As a member of the Kinney College workforce, you are required to conduct yourself in strict conformance to all applicable laws and the University of Southern Indiana and Kinney College policies governing confidential information. Your principal obligations in this area are explained below. You are required to read and to abide by these duties. The violation of any of these duties will subject you to disciplinary action, including termination of employment or dismissal from your educational program. In addition, federal penalties for privacy violations can result in fines up to $250,000 and prison sentences of up to 10 years.

As a member of the Kinney College workforce, you will likely have access to and use confidential information in any or all of the following categories:

- Client personal health information (such as charts and other paper and electronic records, demographic information, conversations, admission/discharge dates, names of attending healthcare providers, client financial information, etc.);
- Information pertaining to members of the Kinney College workforce (such as health records, salaries, employment records, student records, disciplinary actions, etc.);
- University of Southern Indiana and Kinney College information (such as financial and statistical records, strategic plans, internal reports, memos, contracts, peer review information and communications); and
- Third-party information (such as insurance).
- As a member of the Kinney College workforce, you shall only access, use or disclose confidential personal health information as necessary to perform your job functions.

As a member of the Kinney College workforce, you shall only access, use and disclose confidential personal health information which you have authorization to access, use, and disclose as necessary to do your job.

As a member of the Kinney College workforce, you shall not in any way access, use, divulge, copy, release, sell, loan, review, alter or destroy any confidential personal health information except as properly and clearly authorized within the scope of your job and as in accordance with all applicable University of Southern Indiana and Kinney College policies and procedures and with all applicable laws.

As a member of the Kinney College workforce, you shall report to your supervisor and to the appropriate office any individual's or entity's activities that you suspect may compromise the confidentiality of confidential personal health information.
