University of Southern Indiana
...a modern, technology-enhanced ENVIRONMENT

USI is a vibrant campus with modern facilities and an exciting pace of growth. Since the first campus building (Wright Administration Building) opened in 1969, the face of the campus has continued to change, providing the most up-to-date facilities for academics, housing, and student life. Facility development at USI keeps students and faculty equipped with the resources they need, including the best in advanced teaching and learning technology for classrooms and laboratories.

Computer Services

Computer labs are located throughout campus and in the housing areas. Wireless service is available in all main buildings and the surrounding courtyards.

All residence life areas are equipped with network jacks for Internet access. Wireless network also is available throughout the housing areas.

Eagle Access Card

Students use the Eagle Access Card as an identification card and as an all-in-one card for student services such as library privileges, meal plans, vending and copy machines, and access to the Recreation and Fitness Center.

MyUSI

MyUSI is a portal to Web services. Students check e-mail, register online, view their grades, and access other services through this secure Web site.

Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall was appointed to the position of director of Athletics in January 2002, after spending seven years as the assistant director of Athletics. He is USI’s second director of Athletics.

Under his direction, USI was the 2003-04 GLVC All-Sports and Commissioner’s Cup winner and host of the 2004 NCAA Division II Cross Country National Championships.

In addition to his duties as director of Athletics, Hall also is the chair of the NCAA Division II men’s and women’s tennis committee. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional women’s basketball committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men’s tennis coach.

As the men’s tennis coach, no one did it better in the GLVC than Hall. He was named the GLVC Coach of the Year five times, directed the Screaming Eagles to four GLVC regular-season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns, and had a 123-47 record (.724).

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to their third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament and their first victory in the post-season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with their first two invitations to the NCAA II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall came to USI after his tenure at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fundraising and promotion activities.

The native of Murray, Kentucky, is a 1990 cum laude graduate of Murray State University, with a bachelor’s degree in business administration. While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master’s degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

In 1998-99, he completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program at the University of South Carolina and the University of Notre Dame.

Hall and his wife Patti reside in Evansville and have four sons, Nathan, Garland, Ty, and Owen, and daughter, Mary Claire.

Founded in 1965, the University of Southern Indiana is located in Evansville, the state’s third-largest city. From its picturesque site on the Ohio River, Evansville is a comfortable drive from the major metropolitan areas of Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, and St. Louis.

The University enrolls 9,939 students and offers undergraduate majors in 70 areas of study. Graduate degree programs also are available.

Beyond the classroom, students have opportunities to participate in more than 90 organizations offering co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Special interest clubs, student government, sororities and fraternities, music and drama groups, and other organizations enable the students to enjoy and contribute to campus life.

USI offers two kinds of housing. One is the conventional apartment and the other is suite-style housing in a residence hall. Computer labs, laundromats, a convenience store, outdoor recreational areas, and student lounges contribute to an efficient living environment that has proven overwhelmingly popular with students. A meal plan is available in the University Center. More than 3,000 students live on campus.

USI is an affordable higher-education institution and some families find that they can handle the cost of a USI education without financial aid. Many others qualify for need-based financial aid packages, including grants, loans, and jobs.

The coaching staff is great. They are very up front and seem like real, genuine, down-to-earth people.
— Jimmy Allen, Junior

USI has a great tradition located inside a family-oriented community.
— George Cunningham, Sophomore

Coming to USI was the best choice for me, both athletically and academically.
— Nick Duncheon, Freshman

The campus and people make USI feel like a second home.
— Drew Glover, Sophomore

The coaches were very helpful during my decision-making process. USI is close to home and I feel I can contribute to USI’s winning tradition.
— Brandon Hopf, Sophomore

I like the entire Physical Education Department at USI. I also like the fans and their dedication to USI basketball.
— Brent Owen, Sophomore
EVANSVILLE, Indiana
...A CITY with urban attractions and hometown friendliness

Situated on the banks of the Ohio River, Evansville is a mid-sized city that welcomes USI students and offers them plenty of things to do. Roberts Stadium and the Victory Theatre attract students to concerts by entertainers like Nelly, Aerosmith, Kenny Chesney, Kid Rock, and Josh Groban. Traveling Broadway shows and feature performances come to The Centre. For a relaxing walk or invigorating run, the downtown riverfront features a greenway with a wonderful view of the changing river traffic and the Evansville skyline. Movie theatres (including an IMAX) and Swonder Ice Arena draw students together for fun, activity, and fellowship. Evansville’s coffee shops, restaurants, and shopping areas also are places where students like to spend time. Less than three miles from campus, shopping centers and places to eat are plentiful on both sides of the Lloyd Expressway. The Eastland Mall area on Green River Road and the commercial centers off Burkhardt Road offer more restaurants and terrific shopping. USI's suburban location in the rolling hills of western Vanderburgh County is just minutes away from all that Evansville has to offer.

The University of Southern Indiana men’s basketball team has become one of the winningest programs in all of the NCAA the last 15 years and has done it better than any Division II team the last six seasons. The Screaming Eagles hope to continue to be that force in 2007-08.

USI has been the definition of the word consistent in the building of its legacy the last 15 years. The Eagles have posted 15 straight 20-win seasons, won 25 or more games six straight years, won at least 27 games four straight years, appeared in the NCAA Division II Tournament 14 of the last 15 years, and advanced to the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Championship game nine times since 1994. The Eagles won the NCAA Division II National Championship in 1995 and reached the championship game in 1994 and 2004.

The Eagles, who won two of the last three GLVC Tournament championships, also have captured three straight GLVC regular-season titles.

It will not be an easy feat for USI and Head Coach Rick Herdes to continue this trend in 2007-08. USI does not return a starter and lost more than 90 percent of its scoring and rebounding from last season’s squad.

To replace last year’s three-guard rotation that included All-GLVC and All-Region performer Melvin Hall, USI picked up senior guard Tyson Schnitker and sophomore guard Darren Cloud. Schnitker transferred from Indiana State University after averaging 10.3 points and 5.9 rebounds per game in 2005-06.

A native of Evansville, Indiana, Cloud spent a season at the University of South Alabama where he scored nine points and grabbed nine rebounds in 20 appearances for the Jaguars in 2006-07.

USI also will look for major contributions from returning sophomore guards

Drew Glover and Brent Owen. Glover averaged 1.5 points in 16 games for USI in 2006-07, while Owen posted 1.3 points in 17 appearances.

To add depth, the Eagles supplemented the backcourt with a pair of first-year players in freshmen Derrick Lee and Kyle Kopatich. Lee was an All-District performer and team Most Valuable Player at Seymour High School (Seymour, Tennessee), while Kopatich was an All-Conference player for Mt. Vernon High School (Mt. Vernon, Indiana).

In the frontcourt, the Eagles will look for continued development from sophomore center Brandon Hopf and sophomore forward George Cunningham. Hopf played in 32 games last season behind All-American Rashard Sulllivan, averaging 4.1 points and 1.7 rebounds per appearance. Cunningham played in 19 games last year, averaging 1.5 points and 1.0 rebound per contest.

The Eagles will provide experienced help in the middle with the addition of senior forward/center Norman Plummer, junior center Jimmy Allen, and sophomore forward/center Nathan Schumacher. Plummer transferred to USI from the University of Dayton after averaging 8.2 points and 4.8 rebounds per game in 26 games off the bench in 2007-08.

In the Rankings

USI, which is ranked in the top 10 of at least two preseason publications heading into the 2007-08 season, has been ranked NUMBER ONE in the nation at least once in eight of the last 13 seasons.

2007-08 Preseason Rankings
• GLVC Coaches Poll: 2nd (West)
• The Sporting News 2007-08 College Basketball Magazine: 7th
• Division II Bulletin: 10th
men's basketball

In his three-year career at Dayton, Plummer has averaged 9.1 points and 5.3 rebounds per game in 88 appearances for the Flyers. He posted a career-high as a freshman with 24 points against LaSalle University and as a sophomore with 13 rebounds against St. Louis University.

Allen joins the USI men's basketball program in December after two seasons at Cuesta College, which is a part of the California Community College League and the Western State Conference. He was named honorable mention All-State in 2006-07 and earned All-Conference honors each season at Cuesta.

Schumacher played one season for John A. Logan College before transferring to USI. He averaged 6.6 points and 6.7 rebounds in 29 games for the Volunteers. Schumacher was named first team All-SIAC, Courier and Press All-Metro, and Academic All-State at Evansville Central High School in 2005-06 after averaging 16.2 ppg and 12.4 rpg.

On the outside, the Eagles have brought in a trio of swingmen in junior forwards Anthony Pimble and Shaun Bowman, as well as freshman guard/forward Nick Duncheon.

Pimble, who played at Ventura Community College, was the Western State Conference North Division Most Outstanding Player. He also averaged 15.6 points, 8.9 rebounds, 2.1 steals, and 1.8 assists per game. The Ventura Pirates finished the year 26-7 overall, advancing to the California Junior College state semifinals.

Bowman transferred to USI after playing the last two seasons at Frank Phillips College (Borger, Texas). He averaged 7.9 points and 9.5 rebounds per game in 2006-07 and 8.6 points and 6.2 rebounds per contest in 2005-06. Bowman played his prep ball at Bishop Laughlin Memorial High School (Brooklyn, New York).

Duncheon finished his high school career at Barr-Reeve High School (Montgomery, Indiana) by being named to the Indiana All-State team and helping the Vikings to the Indiana Class 1A State Title game. He won back-to-back Washington Times Herald Outstanding Player of the Year awards as a junior and senior and averaged 17.1 points and 7.3 rebounds per game as a senior.

For the first time since 2004, USI tips off the regular season at home when it hosts Harris-Stowe State November 17. The contest starts a schedule that features 18 home games, including 10 GLVC games. All eight non-conference games are at home this season, highlighted by the new Bill Joergens Memorial Tournament November 23-24. The Thanksgiving classic-style tournament features USI, Bellarmine, Northwest Missouri State, and Southwest Minnesota State.

Northwest Missouri State finished the year ranked 17th nationally and appeared in the NCAA Division II Tournament after posting a 24-7 overall record.

Sandwiched between the opener with Harris-Stowe State and the Bill Joergens Memorial Tournament, the Eagles host Illinois-Springfield November 20.

The Prairie Stars were 23-9 last year and advanced to the NAIA I Tournament as the 15th seed.

The Eagles will host four Division II teams in December, beginning with Ohio Valley December 8 and Tiffin December 15. USI concludes the 2007-08 non-conference schedule by hosting Ferris State December 19 and Michigan Tech December 30.

USI begins defense of their GLVC West Division crown on the road in the “Battle for the Bridge” against Kentucky Wesleyan December 1 in Owensboro, Kentucky. USI has won the last three regular-season battles in the rivalry.

The Eagles do not open the home portion of the GLVC campaign until January 10 when Wisconsin-Parkside comes to the Physical Activities Center. UW-Parkside went 19-13 last year and appeared in the NCAA II Tournament.

The GLVC West Division is loaded this season with USI, Quincy, Drury, and Rockhurst all advancing to the NCAA II Tournament a year ago. USI hosts Quincy January 24; Rockhurst February 14; and Drury February 16.
Rick Herdes (Noble, Illinois) has USI basketball fans looking forward to each March. Herdes has steered the Screaming Eagles to five straight NCAA Division II Tournament appearances and a 158-40 (.798) overall record during his six years.

In 2006-07, Herdes was named the Great Lakes Valley Conference Coach of the Year after guiding the Eagles to a 29-6 overall record, 14-5 GLVC, and their second GLVC Tournament title in three seasons. The Eagles also captured the GLVC West Division crown for the second straight season and won the Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic for the second consecutive year.

Herdes’ Eagles also advanced to the semifinals of the NCAA II Great Lakes Region Tournament for the fifth consecutive season.

Entering the 2006-07 season, Herdes ranked second among active NCAA Division II head coaches in winning percentage as well as fourth among active coaches from all three divisions, a position that is sure to improve following the conclusion of the 2007 post-season.

The 2005-06 version of Herdes’ Eagles was 27-7 overall, tied for first in the GLVC West Division, won the Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic, and advanced to the NCAA Division II Great Lakes Region Championship for the third time in four seasons. He also directed the team to its 14th straight 20-win season and the fourth straight 25-win season.

The 27 wins in 2005-06 had USI ranked seventh among NCAA Division I, II, and III men’s basketball programs with 25.7 victories per season since 1992-93.

In 2004-05, Herdes’ Eagles won the program’s first-ever GLVC Tournament championship and the ninth conference regular-season championship. USI’s 17-game winning streak was the longest in the history of the program, while the 18-2 league record tied for first all-time in the history of the program and third all-time in the GLVC for victories in a year.

During 2003-04, Herdes directed the Eagles back to Division II’s center stage as the NCAA II Elite Eight finalists and the Great Lakes Regional Champions. He was named the Division II Bulletin Coach of the Month for December when he led the Eagles to an 11-0 record last year and to the program’s seventh NUMBER ONE ranking in 10 seasons. Herdes’ Eagles also finished the season one win short of the school record with a 28-7 overall mark.

In his second season at the helm of the men’s basketball program, Herdes took the Screaming Eagles back to the big dance and to within three-point range of the NCAA Division II Elite Eight.

Herdes directed the Eagles to a 25-7 overall record, a 16-4 mark in the GLVC, and the Great Lakes Regional finals after defeating No. 1-ranked Michigan Tech University in the semifinals. The squad, which also boasted an honorable mention All-American, two All-Region performers, and three All-GLVC players, advanced in the Sweet 16 of the national tournament for the seventh time in nine seasons.

In his first season at the helm, Herdes had a record-tying year. The Eagles posted a 22-8 overall record, tying the USI record for wins by a first-year coach. He also led the Eagles to a fourth-place finish in the Great Lakes Valley Conference with a 14-6 mark, advancing to the semifinals of the league’s post-season tournament.

Herdes had been with USI for nine seasons as an associate head coach and assistant coach before being tapped for the top position in 2001. He is widely known as one of the best recruiters and top coaches in Division II basketball. The Eagles’ successes since Herdes’ arrival reflect his abilities.

In his nine seasons as an assistant at USI, Herdes helped direct the Eagles to a 231-46 overall record (.833), the 1995 NCAA II National Championship, the 1994 NCAA II National Championship game, three Great Lakes Valley Conference Championships, nine consecutive NCAA II Tournament appearances, and nine straight 20-win seasons. USI has averaged over 25 victories a season since 1993-94.

USI’s point man on the recruiting trail, Herdes brought in nearly all of the key players who contributed to USI becoming a national power in Division II. Some of those key recruits were two-time NABC/NCAA Division II Player of the Year Stan Gouard, All-American and GLVC Player of the Year Chad Gilbert, Division II Bulletin All-American Jeremy Pearson, and 2001 first team All-American Derrick Lyons.

Herdes came to USI from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where he was an assistant from 1986 to 1992. While at SIUE, Herdes helped Head Coach Larry Graham lead the Cougars to a 127-56 (.694) record and three NCAA tournament appearances. He was responsible for coordinating recruiting and was the academic advisor to the basketball team and director of summer camps and fundraising events.

In 21 collegiate basketball seasons, the programs Herdes has been involved with have a .784 winning percentage (516-142). In 1991 and 1992 at SIUE, he was the head coach for the Illinois Prairie State Games, Southern Open Men’s Division. His 1992 team received the silver medal.

Prior to working at SIUE, Herdes was an assistant basketball coach and physical education instructor at Lawrenceville (Illinois) High School, where he worked for former Indiana University assistant coach Ron Felling. LHS was the Illinois Class A State Champion in 1982 and 1983 and had a 68-game winning streak. Herdes was inducted into the Illinois High School Athletic Association Hall of Fame in 1998.

Herdes graduated from Graceland College in 1980 with a bachelor’s degree in education. As a player, he led Lincoln Trail College to a ninth-place finish in the national tournament and helped lead Graceland to its first-ever appearance in the NAIA Tournament.

Herdes and his wife Sarah reside in Evansville with his daughter Taylor (14) and son Connor (11).

During Rick Herdes’ 15-year association with USI, the Screaming Eagles have had 18 players enter the pro ranks.
In the Spotlight

The University of Southern Indiana men’s basketball team is consistently in the Evansville media spotlight. With Head Coach Rick Herdes at the helm, the Screaming Eagles also have been getting recognition on the national level.

Herdes has been featured in American Basketball Quarterly.

He was named the national coach of the month by the Division II Bulletin in December 2003 after leading the Eagles to an 11-0 start and the program’s seventh NUMBER ONE ranking in 10 years.

On the local level, Herdes and the Eagles are covered by three television stations as well as multiple radio stations, including two that broadcast USI games over the airwaves and on the Internet. The Eagles, who are covered by numerous newspapers, also have their home games carried on the local cable system.

In 2006-07, the Eagles had all 15 home games broadcast on television. Coach Herdes also has a local radio show as well as a weekly television show.

Eagles on Air

In addition to USI basketball games being broadcast live by WYFX FM 106.7 and WSWI AM 820, Head Coach Rick Herdes also has a television show and a radio show.

• Rick Herdes on Basketball is broadcast live every Monday night during the season from the westside Buffalo Wild Wings and can be heard on WYFX FM 106.7.

• The Rick Herdes Show is a weekly television show that recaps USI basketball and gives fans an inside look into the USI men’s basketball program. The show can be seen every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. on Insight Cable Channel 437 and WOW Cable Channel 111.

*Note: Many of USI’s 18 home games will be televised locally in 2007-08.

Head Coach Rick Herdes, GLVC Coach of the Year in 2006-07 and the Division II Bulletin Coach of the Month for December 2003, has been a part of 516 victories during his collegiate coaching career.

Herdes has had a hand in over half of the USI men’s basketball program’s 708 victories. He has helped the Eagles to 389 victories in 15 seasons with the USI men’s basketball program.

In 2003-04, Herdes led the Screaming Eagles back to the NCAA II National Championship game for the first time in 10 years. He led the Eagles to their first-ever GLVC Tournament title in 2004-05 after winning the GLVC regular-season title with a conference mark of 18-2. USI also won the GLVC Tournament in 2006-07.

He has led the Eagles to three NCAA II Regional Championship games and five straight NCAA II Tournament appearances. He has averaged more than 26 wins per year in his first six seasons at the helm of the USI men’s basketball program.
Marc Hostetter ’98 returns for his seventh season as an assistant coach to Head Coach Rick Herdes. Hostetter has been a part of 312 victories as a player and coach. USI’s all-time leader in assists also helped the Screaming Eagles to 11 NCAA II Tournament appearances on the court and sideline.

Hostetter’s third season was highlighted with USI’s return to the NCAA II Elite Eight. The 2003-04 appearance in the championship marked the third time that Hostetter and Herdes appeared in the title game, and Hostetter’s first as a coach.

Hostetter rejoined the USI program after spending two seasons as an assistant coach to Mike Leeder at Longwood College in Virginia. Hostetter helped lead the Lancers to a 23-8 overall record, Longwood’s first-ever Carolinas-Virginia Athletic Conference championship, and an NCAA Division II Tournament appearance.

“Marc has the complete package, both as a person and a coach,” said Coach Herdes. “I recruited Marc to USI, and his knowledge of the system and University as well as the league and Division II basketball is a great asset to our program.”

“Marc has prepared himself to be a head coach and a good one,” Herdes concluded.

The Lyons, Indiana, native returns to the USI team he helped lead to the 1995 NCAA Division II National Championship and a 105-17 record in his four seasons as a point guard. During Hostetter’s four seasons, the Screaming Eagles were ranked number one nationally at some point during the season in three of four seasons.

After his playing days, Hostetter joined the staff of former USI Head Coach Bruce Pearl for two seasons as an assistant coach. During his two seasons on the bench, USI finished as the GLVC Tournament runner-up twice, while making a pair of NCAA II Tournament Sweet 16 appearances.

A 1998 USI graduate, Hostetter and his wife, the former Nikki Jordan ’98, have a son, Leo (4).
Aaron Brothers enters his first season as a full-time assistant coach and his fourth year overall with the men’s basketball coaching staff.

Brothers was a graduate assistant coach at USI the last three years, while working toward a Master of Business Administration degree.

Prior to coming to USI, Brothers earned a bachelor’s degree in business administration from Indiana Wesleyan University and was a member of the men’s basketball program. He finished his collegiate basketball career as IWU’s third all-time leading scorer.

“Aaron has been an integral part of our program the last few seasons,” Head Coach Rick Herdes said. “He’s a young man with a great work ethic and the people skills to be a great recruiter.”

The Evansville, Indiana, native also was a two-sport letter winner at Memorial High School.

The University of Southern Indiana men's basketball teams have traveled the continental United States and beyond since 1990. USI has played regular-season games, regular-season tournaments, and post-season contests in Alaska, Arkansas, the Bahamas, California, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, Nevada, Ohio, Tennessee, and Wisconsin.

USI has played in the prestigious Division II Tip-Off Classic at Disney's Wide World of Sports in Orlando, Florida, four times. The Eagles also have played in the High Desert Classic in Las Vegas, Nevada, four times.

In November 2005, the Screaming Eagles became the first team to win the Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic for a second time. Last year, they became the first team to win the tournament in back-to-back seasons.
The Screaming Eagles became the only school in history to win three Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic titles when they won the prestigious event for the second straight year in 2006. In addition to their titles in 2005 and 2006, the Eagles finished first in 1997 and third in 2001.
The Screaming Eagles captured their second GLVC Tournament title in three years when they defeated Northern Kentucky, 63-61, in the championship game.

- Denotes number of times player has earned honor
during the last 28 years, the University of Southern Indiana men’s basketball program has become a force in the Great Lakes Valley Conference, the Great Lakes Region, and at the national level.

Since the beginning of the GLVC in 1979, the Screaming Eagles have become one of the premier teams in the league, winning 12 regular-season titles in the GLVC. USI’s teams also have featured four GLVC Coaches of the Year and six conference Players of the Year.

Starting with the 1992-93 USI team, the Eagles have made their mark on the Great Lakes Region and the NCAA Division II. USI has won 20 or more games 16 times in the last 17 years, including the last 15 seasons, and averaged more than 25 victories a year since 1993-94.

The Eagles stepped into the national spotlight in 1993-94 when they made their first trip to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight and the NCAA Division II Championship game.

The loss in the 1994 championship game propelled USI back into the NCAA Division II Championship game in 1995, and on to its first-ever national championship.

USI has been ranked number one nationally at one point during the season in eight of the last 14 years and has been to the NCAA Division II Sweet 16 nine times in the last 15 years.

The University of Southern Indiana men’s basketball tradition got its start in 1965 when the school, then known as Indiana State University-Evansville, sponsored basketball as a club sport. USI’s first official year as a varsity men’s basketball team would come five years later when it changed its nickname from the Spartans to the Screaming Eagles. Pictured above is USI’s 1970-71 team, the first varsity athletic team in school history.

Since the 1992-93 season, USI has been one of the top programs in the country, amassing a record of 389-86 (819), appearing in 14 NCAA II Tournaments, three Elite Eights, and winning the national championship in 1995.
Investing in the future of a student-athlete ensures that every one of USI’s student-athletes receives an exceptional academic and athletic opportunity during his or her four years of eligibility.

Fans of USI intercollegiate sports help underwrite scholarships for student athletes through their membership in the USI Varsity Club. Others provide charitable gifts for a specific athletic scholarship or for one of the 15 varsity teams.

USI Varsity Club

Every year 100 percent of the membership fees the USI Varsity Club receives from sports fans, alumni, friends, and area businesses goes directly into the club’s scholarship fund for student athletes. The USI Varsity Club was organized in 1970 as the official booster club for USI varsity athletics. The club’s primary goal today—in partnership with the University—is to fully fund scholarships for all student athletes participating in USI’s 15 intercollegiate sports.

Membership levels

- Silver Eagle ($125)
- Golden Eagle ($250)
- Regal Eagle ($500)
- All-American Eagle ($1,000)
- Screaming Eagle ($2,000)

Each year the USI Varsity Club sponsors several events such as the USI Varsity Club Golf Outing (above) and the USI Steak Fry ’n Auction (below) to help raise funds for all of USI’s 15 intercollegiate sports.
Physical Activities Center

The newly renovated Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 28 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

The center court of the PAC has been the setting for many games of regional and national interest during the past 13 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men’s NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 1998 women’s GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women’s NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 and 2004 GLVC Volleyball Tournaments.

A true home court, the USI men’s basketball team has a 337-57 home record since 1993-94, a .862 winning percentage.

In 2006-07, the PAC underwent renovations that included three new wood courts and a new center-court design that incorporated USI’s athletic logo. The renovation also featured a new scoreboard and video board, new portable goals, and new seating. Among the changes to the seating were padded chairback seats and back-supported bleacher seats.
