Eagle Athletics
Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall was appointed to the position of director of Athletics in January 2002, after seven years as the assistant director of Athletics.

Under his direction, USI was the 2003-04 GLVC All-Sports and Commissioner’s Cup winner and host of the 2004 NCAA Division II Cross Country National Championships.

In addition to his duties as director of Athletics, Hall also is the chair of the NCAA Division II men's and women's tennis committee. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional women's basketball committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men's tennis coach.

As the men's tennis coach, no one did it better in the GLVC than Hall. He was named the GLVC Coach of the Year five times, directed the Screaming Eagles to four GLVC regular-season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns, and had a 123-47 record (.724).

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to their third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament and their first victory in the post-season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with their first two invitations to the NCAA II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall came to USI after his appointment at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fundraising and promotional activities.

The native of Murray, Kentucky, is a 1990 cum laude graduate of Murray State University, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

In 1998-99, he completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program at the University of South Carolina and the University of Notre Dame.

Hall and his wife Patti reside in Evansville and have four sons, Nathan, Garland, Ty, and Owen, and daughter, Mary Claire.

...a modern, technology-enhanced ENVIRONMENT

USI is a vibrant campus with modern facilities and an exciting pace of growth. Since the first campus building (Wright Administration Building) opened in 1969, the face of the campus has continued to change, providing the most up-to-date facilities for academics, housing, and student life. Facility development at USI keeps students and faculty equipped with the resources they need, including the best in advanced teaching and learning technology for classrooms and laboratories.

Computer Services
Computer labs are located throughout campus and in the housing areas. Wireless service is available in all main buildings and the surrounding courtyards.

All residence life areas are equipped with network jacks for Internet access. Wireless network also is available throughout the housing areas.

Eagle Access Card
Students use the Eagle Access Card as an identification card and as an all-in-one card for student services such as library privileges, meal plans, vending and copy machines, and access to the Recreation and Fitness Center.

MyUSI
MyUSI is a portal to Web services. Students check e-mail, register online, view their grades, and access other services through this secure Web site.

USI at a GLANCE
- A state-supported, four-year university in Evansville, Indiana, founded in 1965 and established as a separate university in 1985
- 10,126 students from 91 Indiana counties, 40 states, and 50 nations (2008-09)
- Student/faculty ratio of 18:1
- 1,400-acre suburban campus with 10 major academic buildings
- Apartments and suite-style residence halls for approximately 2,700 students
- Five colleges: Business, Education and Human Services, Liberal Arts, Nursing and Health Professions, Science and Engineering, and University Division
Location
The University of Southern Indiana was founded Evansville in 1965. USI is a comfortable drive from the major metropolitan centers of Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, and St. Louis.

The Campus
The Nursing and Health Professions Center, Science Center, Wright Administration Building, the Education Center, and the Orr Center are located on the north side of campus. Rice Library, the University Center, the Liberal Arts Center, the Technology Center, and the Business and Engineering Center, now under construction, form the quadrangle in the center of campus. The Physical Activities Center and the Recreation and Fitness Center, which is undergoing a substantial addition, are located east of University Boulevard, a major thoroughfare through campus. Apartment buildings and residence halls are home to 2,700 students who live on campus.

Academic Life
The University enrolls 10,126 students and offers undergraduate majors in 70 areas of study. An ever-increasing number of post-graduate programs also are available to students who wish to continue their education. Opportunities are available for service learning, study abroad, and internships.

Campus Life
Outside the classroom, students have opportunities to participate in more than 90 organizations offering co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Special interest clubs, student government, sororities and fraternities, music and drama groups, and other organizations enable the students to enjoy and contribute to campus life.

Residence Life
Students living on campus have their choice of two types of housing. Students can live in standard apartments or in suite-style housing in residence halls which have amenities such as Internet connections, wireless Internet, and cable television. Computer labs, laundromats, a convenience store, outdoor and indoor recreation areas, and student lounges contribute to an efficient living environment that has proven to be overwhelmingly popular to students. Meal plans also are available at the University Center, which is located in the center of campus.

Financial Assistance
USI provides families with an affordable way to higher education. While some families find that they can handle the cost of a USI education without financial assistance, others qualify for need-based financial packages, including grants, loans, and on-campus jobs.

• ABOUT the PAC •

Physical Activities Center

The newly renovated Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 28 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

The center court of the PAC has been the setting for many games of regional and national interest during the past 13 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 1998 women's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 and 2004 GLVC Volleyball Tournaments.

A true home court, the USI men's basketball team has a 368-64 home record since 1980, a .852 winning percentage.

In 2006-07, the PAC underwent renovations that included three new wood courts and a new center-court design that incorporated USI's athletic logo. The renovation also featured a new scoreboard and video board, new portable goals, and new seating. Among the changes to the seating were padded chairback seats and back-supported bleacher seats.
“USI has a great tradition located inside a family-oriented community.”
— George Cunningham, Junior

“Coming to USI was the best choice for me, both athletically and academically.”
— Nick Duncheon, Sophomore

“I chose USI because of the great atmosphere and the coaches.”
— Jeron Lewis, Junior

“I love the setting, away from town with the woods, trails, lakes, and several new buildings full of the latest technology in the classrooms.”
— Brent Owen, Junior

“I came to USI because I want to win.”
— Anthony Pimble, Senior

“USI is a good place for me to get my degree and play basketball.”
— Isaac Stoll, Junior
EVANSVILLE, Indiana
...A CITY with urban attractions and hometown friendliness

Situated on the banks of the Ohio River, Evansville is a mid-sized city that welcomes USI students and offers them plenty of things to do. Roberts Stadium and the Victory Theatre attract students to concerts by entertainers like Nelly, Aerosmith, Kenny Chesney, Kid Rock, and Josh Groban. Traveling Broadway shows and feature performances come to The Centre. For a relaxing walk or invigorating run, the downtown riverfront features a greenway with a wonderful view of the changing river traffic and the Evansville skyline. Movie theatres (including an IMAX) and Swonder Ice Arena draw students together for fun, activity, and fellowship. Evansville's coffee shops, restaurants, and shopping areas also are places where students like to spend time. Less than three miles from campus, shopping centers and restaurants are plentiful on both sides of the Lloyd Expressway. The Eastland Mall area on Green River Road and the commercial centers off Burkhardt Road offer more restaurants and terrific shopping. USI’s suburban location in the rolling hills of western Vanderburgh County is just minutes away from all that Evansville has to offer.

Excitement high for Eagles in 2008-09

Excitement and expectations are high for the University of Southern Indiana men's basketball team as the squad begins another season as a top contender for the GLVC and Midwest Region championships.

The Screaming Eagles completed their 16th straight winning season last year, posting a 15-12 overall mark. Last year's winning record also was the 22nd positive finish to a campaign in the last 24 years, but the team fell short of advancing to the conference post-season.

The last 24 years have included 17 20-win seasons and 12 25-plus victory campaigns for the Eagles. USI also has appeared in 10 of the 11 GLVC tournaments since 1997-98 and 14 of the last 16 NCAA Division II tournaments since 1992-93.

USI Head Coach Rick Herdes, who has led the Eagles to 27 or more wins in four of the last five years, will have the job of meshing six returning players and nine newcomers in 2008-09. Herdes will have to replace 80 percent of the scoring and 62 percent of the rebounding from last year's team.

The squad will lean heavily on senior forward Anthony Pimble, the team's top returning scorer, and senior guard Kenny Love, who was redshirted last year after a knee injury. Pimble dropped in 11.4 points per game during his first season, while Love averaged 7.8 points per contest during his first season with the Eagles in 2006-07.

USI also will look for major contributions from three other returning players—junior forward/center George Cunningham, junior guard Brent Owen, and sophomore forward Nick Duncheon. Duncheon averaged 3.7 points and 1.2 rebounds per game during his first season, while Cunningham posted 3.1 points and 3.5 rebounds per contest.

Also returning after redshirting last year is junior forward Brandon Carr. Carr transferred to USI after averaging 13.1 points and 8.0 rebounds per appearance at the Community College of Baltimore County at Cantonsville in 2006-07.

To solve the depth problem at guard that plagued the Eagles last season, Herdes has added four new players in the back court. Junior Marvin Gray and sophomore Kevin Gant transfer from junior college ranks, while freshmen Brandon Hogg and Levi Holscher begin collegiate careers as Eagles.

Gant comes to USI after leading Indian River Community College to a 22-9 record and a number-five ranking in the Florida Junior College Athletic Association in 2007-08. He led the team with 14.7 points, 6.1 assists, and 3.1 steals per game, while also grabbing 4.2 rebounds per contest.

Gray comes to USI after leading Indian River Community College to a 22-9 record and a number-five ranking in the Florida Junior College Athletic Association in 2007-08. He also was named All-State and All-Division both seasons, while receiving the 2008 Pioneer Pride Award (team's most valuable player) at the end of the year.

Overall in two years at IRCC, Gray averaged 14.5 points, 5.2 assists, 3.1 steals, and 4.1 rebounds per game. He also scored a two-year high 32 points against Broward Community College and dished out 12 assists against Santa Fe Community College this past season.

Gant returns to his Indiana roots after one season at Lake Michigan College in Benton Harbor, Michigan. He was selected for the Western MCCAA All-Stars after averaging eight points, 7.9 assists, and three steals per game. The 7.9 assists per game ranked sixth in the NJCAA, while the All-Western Division player set the Lake Michigan single-game (17) and single-season (229) records for assists.

Prior to attending Lake Michigan, Gant played for North Central High School in Indianapolis. He was an alternate for the Hoosier Basketball Top 40 in 2006-07 and tied for 20th in Indiana for assists per game.

Hogg will start his collegiate career after a successful four seasons at Edwardsville High School in Edwardsville, Illinois. A fourth team Illinois Basketball Coaches Association All-State selection, Hogg averaged 14.0 points, 8.1 assists, and 6.6 rebounds per game. His 8.1 assists per game led the St. Louis area in that statistical category.

Holscher was named the Vincennes Sun-Commercial Player of the Year and to the Evansville Courier & Press All-Southwestern Indiana team after averaging 18.2 points and 4.2 rebounds per game last year for South Knox High School. He finishes his career as the SKHS all-time leading scorer (1,296 career points) and all-time leader in steals (192).
In the front court, the Eagles will replace honorable mention All-American and first team All-GLVC Norman Plummer.

To ease the transition, USI has added three talented transfers from the junior college ranks in junior forwards Brandon Russ, Tyrone Bradshaw, and Jeron Lewis in addition to junior guard/forward Isaac Stoll.

Russ transfers to USI from St. Catherine College, where he was a first team All-Region and first team All-Tennessee Junior and Community College Athletic Association. The All-State and All-Division honoree averaged 16.1 points and 6.7 rebounds per game for the Patriots, who were 22-6 overall. He led the Western Division of the TJCCAA with an 11-5 record. Russ' 16.1 scoring average was 15th in the TJCCAA.

Bradshaw comes to USI from Southwestern Illinois College, where he averaged nine points, three rebounds, and a team-high 2.5 blocks per game. He also posted season-bests of 32 points against Lake Land College and seven rebounds against Highland Community College.

Lewis averaged 9.1 points and 4.8 rebounds per game at Northeastern Junior College (Sterling, Colorado), while shooting 60.4 percent from the field (122-202) in 2007-08. He started his collegiate career at Wabash Valley College (Mt. Carmel, Illinois), averaging 4.4 points and 2.9 rebounds per contest.

Stoll makes the switch from Division I baseball at Southeast Missouri State University to USI basketball. He has strong basketball roots, developed on the IHSAA class 3A state championship team at Washington High School. Stoll averaged 11.1 points and 7.9 rebounds per game during the championship season.

USI starts the 2008-09 regular season campaign in search of history as it plays in the Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic for the third time in four seasons. USI will try to win a tournament-record fourth championship in five appearances at the preseason tournament, which runs November 7-9.

USI will play Saint Martin University, Minnesota State University, and Bentley College in the three-day tournament.

Prior to playing in the Disney Classic, the Screaming Eagles will play an exhibition game against the University of Evansville November 1.

The Eagles last played the Aces in 2006, and will be completing a three-games-in-five-seasons contract that began in 2004.

The 2008-09 campaign also features 19 USI home contests beginning November 1 against Lake Land College and seven rebounds against Highland Community College.

Lewis averaged 91 points and 4.8 rebounds per game at Northeastern Junior College (Sterling, Colorado), while shooting 60.4 percent from the field (122-202) in 2007-08. He started his collegiate career at Wabash Valley College (Mt. Carmel, Illinois), averaging 4.4 points and 2.9 rebounds per contest.

Stoll makes the switch from Division I baseball at Southeast Missouri State University to USI basketball. He has strong basketball roots, developed on the IHSAA class 3A state championship team at Washington High School. Stoll averaged 11.1 points and 7.9 rebounds per game during the championship season.

USI starts the 2008-09 regular season campaign in search of history as it plays in the Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic for the third time in four seasons. USI will try to win a tournament-record fourth championship in five appearances at the preseason tournament, which runs November 7-9.

USI will play Saint Martin University, Minnesota State University, and Bentley College in the three-day tournament.

A highlight of the conference home schedule is the “Battle for the Bridge” game between USI and Kentucky Wesleyan College on January 15. USI has won the last four regular-season battles in the rivalry, including last season’s 79-77 victory in Owensboro, Kentucky.

The GLVC West Division will be different this year with the move of Southern Illinois University Edwardsville to Division I. USI will host Drury University, which advanced to the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional last year, for the Eagles’ homecoming game February 7.

Rick Herdes, Head Coach

Rick Herdes (Noble, Illinois) has USI basketball fans looking forward to each March. Herdes has steered the Screaming Eagles to five NCAA Division II Tournament appearances and a 173-52 (.768) overall record during his seven years as head coach.

USI, under Herdes’ direction both as a head coach and assistant, has reached the 20-win mark 15 times in 16 years and won 25 or more games five times in last seven season.

In 2006-07, Herdes was named the GLVC Coach of the Year after guiding the Eagles to a 29-6 overall record, 14-5 GLVC mark, and their second GLVC Tournament title in three seasons. The Eagles also captured the GLVC West Division crown for a third straight season and became the first team to win three Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic crowns.

Herdes’ Eagles also advanced to the semifinals of the NCAA II Great Lakes Region Tournament for the fifth consecutive season.

The 2005-06 version of Herdes' Screaming Eagles was 27-7 overall, tied for first in the GLVC West Division, won the Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic, and advanced to the NCAA Division II Great Lakes Region Final for the third time in four seasons. He also directed the team to its 14th straight 20-win season and the fourth straight year with 25 or more wins.

In 2004-05, Herdes’ Eagles won the program’s first-ever GLVC Tournament championship and the ninth conference regular-season championship. USI’s 17-game winning streak was the longest in the history of the program. The 18-2 league record is tied for first all-time in the history of the program and third all-time in the GLVC for victories in a year.

During 2003-04, Herdes directed the Screaming Eagles back to Division II’s center stage as the NCAA II Elite Eight finalists and the Great Lakes Regional Champions. He was named the Division II Bulletin Coach of the Month for December when he led the Screaming Eagles to an 11-0 record and to the program’s seventh NUMBER ONE ranking in 10 seasons. Herdes’ Eagles also finished the season one win short of the school record with a 28-7 mark.

In his second season at the helm of the men’s basketball program, Herdes took the Screaming Eagles back to the big dance and to within three-point range of the NCAA Division II Elite Eight.
Herdes directed the Eagles to a 25-7 overall record, a 16-4 mark in the GLVC, and the Great Lakes Regional finals after defeating No. 1-ranked Michigan Tech University in the semifinals. The squad, which also boasted an honorable mention All-American, two All-Region performers, and three All-GLVC players, advanced in the Sweet 16 of the national tournament for the seventh time in nine seasons.

In his first season at the helm, Herdes had a record-tying year. The Eagles posted a 22-8 overall record, tying the USI record for wins by a first-year coach. He also led the Eagles to a fourth-place finish in the Great Lakes Valley Conference with a 14-6 mark, advancing to the semifinals of the league's post-season tournament.

Herdes had been with USI for nine seasons as an associate head coach and assistant coach before being tapped for the top position in 2001. The native of Noble, Illinois, is widely known as one of the best recruiters and top coaches in Division II basketball. The Eagles' successes since Herdes' arrival reflect his abilities.

In his nine seasons as an assistant at USI, Herdes helped direct the Eagles to a 231-46 overall record (.833), the 1995 NCAA II National Championship, the 1994 NCAA II National Championship game, three Great Lakes Valley Conference championships, nine consecutive NCAA II Tournament appearances, and nine straight 20-win seasons. USI has averaged over 25 victories a season since 1993-94.

Head Coach Rick Herdes, GLVC Coach of the Year in 2006-07 and the Division II Bulletin Coach of the Month for December 2003, has been a part of 531 victories during his collegiate coaching career.

Herdes has had a hand in over half of the USI men's basketball program's 723 victories. He has helped the Eagles to 404 victories in 16 seasons with the USI men's basketball program.

In 2003-04, Herdes led the Screaming Eagles back to the NCAA II National Championship game for the first time in 10 years. He led the Eagles to their first-ever GLVC Tournament title in 2004-05 after winning the GLVC regular-season title with a conference mark of 18-2. USI also won the GLVC Tournament in 2006-07.

He has led the Eagles to three NCAA II Regional Championship games and five NCAA II Tournament appearances in seven years. He has averaged nearly 25 wins per year in his first seven seasons at the helm of the USI men's basketball program.

USI’s point man on the recruiting trail, Herdes brought in nearly all of the key players who contributed to USI becoming a national power in Division II. Some of those key recruits were two-time NABC/NCAA Division II Player of the Year Stan Gouard, All-American and GLVC Player of the Year Chad Gilbert, Division II Bulletin All-American Jeremy Pearson, and 2001 first team All-American Derrick Lyons.

Herdes came to USI from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where he was an assistant from 1986 to 1992. While at SIUE, Herdes helped Head Coach Larry Graham lead the Cougars to a 127-56 (.694) record and three NCAA Tournament appearances. He was responsible for coordinating recruiting and was the academic advisor to the basketball team and director of summer camps and fundraising events.

In 22 collegiate basketball seasons, the programs Herdes has been involved with have a .776 winning percentage (531-153).

In 1991 and 1992 at SIUE, he was the head coach for the Illinois Prairie State Games, Southern Open Men’s Division. His 1992 team received the silver medal.

Prior to working at SIUE, Herdes was an assistant basketball coach and physical education instructor at Lawrenceville (Illinois) High School, where he worked for Ron Felling, a former Indiana University assistant coach. LHS was the Illinois Class A State Champion in 1982 and 1983 and had a 68-game winning streak. Herdes was inducted into the Illinois High School Athletic Association Hall of Fame in 1998.

Herdes graduated from Graceland College in 1980 with a bachelor’s degree in education. As a player, he led Lincoln Trail College to a ninth-place finish in the national tournament and helped lead Graceland to its first-ever appearance in the NAIA Tournament.

Herdes and his wife Sarah reside in Evansville with his daughter Taylor (16) and son Connor (13).

During Rick Herdes’ 16-year association with USI, the Screaming Eagles have had 19 players enter the pro ranks.

In the Spotlight

The University of Southern Indiana men’s basketball team is consistently in the Evansville media spotlight. With Head Coach Rick Herdes at the helm, the Screaming Eagles also have been getting recognition on the national level.

Herdes has been featured in American Basketball Quarterly.

He was named the national coach of the month by the Division II Bulletin in December 2003 after leading the Eagles to an 11-0 start and the program’s seventh NUMBER ONE ranking in 10 years.

On the local level, Herdes and the Eagles are covered by three television stations as well as multiple radio stations, including two that broadcast USI games over the airwaves and on the Internet. The Eagles, who are covered by numerous newspapers, also have their home games carried on the local cable system.

In 2007-08, the Eagles had a majority of their home games broadcast on television. Coach Herdes also has a local radio show as well as a weekly television show.

Eagles on Air

In addition to USI basketball games being broadcast live by WYFX FM 106.7 and WSWI AM 820, Head Coach Rick Herdes also has a television show and a radio show.

- Rick Herdes on Basketball is broadcast live every Monday night during the season from Turoni’s on Main Street and can be heard on WYFX FM 106.7.
- The Rick Herdes Show is a weekly television show that recaps USI basketball and gives fans an inside look into the USI men’s basketball program.

Note: Many of USI’s 19 home games will be televised locally in 2008-09.
Aaron Brothers enters his second season as a full-time assistant coach and his fifth year overall with the men’s basketball coaching staff. Brothers assists Head Coach Rick Herdes with all aspects of the USI men’s basketball program.

Brothers began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at USI. During his time as a graduate assistant, the Screaming Eagles posted an 83-18 overall record, 46-12 in the GLVC, captured two GLVC Tournament titles, and made three trips to the NCAA II Tournament.

Prior to coming to USI, Brothers earned a bachelor’s degree in business administration from Indiana Wesleyan University and was a member of the men’s basketball program. He finished his collegiate basketball career as IWU’s third all-time leading scorer.

“Aaron has been an integral part of our program the last few seasons,” Head Coach Rick Herdes said. “He’s a young man with a great work ethic and the people skills to be a great recruiter.”

The Evansville, Indiana, native also was a two-sport letter winner at Memorial High School.

Tyson Schnitker, Assistant Coach

Tyson Schnitker begins his first season as an assistant coach at USI. Schnitker assists Head Coach Rick Herdes in all aspects of the USI men’s basketball program.

Schnitker is making the transition from USI player to coach in 2008-09. He was fourth on the team in scoring with 10.1 points per game and led the squad with 3.3 assists per contest in his only season with the Eagles in 2007-08. The native of Robinson, Illinois, had a career-best 30 points against Drury University and six assists in four different games.

Prior to playing last year at USI, Schnitker spent three seasons at Indiana State University. He averaged 7.6 points and 2.1 assists per game in 79 appearances as a Sycamore.

Schnitker joins the USI coaching staff with one year of experience. He was a part-time assistant coach at Lincoln Trail College in 2006-07 before transferring to USI last year.

Schnitker earned a master’s degree in Business Administration from USI this summer and a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from Indiana State in 2007.

Brandon Fisher, Graduate Assistant Coach

Brandon Fisher begins his first season as a graduate assistant coach with the men’s basketball program.

Fisher comes to USI after spending the 2007-08 season as the head coach of the boys’ basketball team at Logan County High School in Russellville, Kentucky. He also was the strength and conditioning coordinator for basketball at LCHS.

Fisher began his coaching career at Henderson County High School, serving as the assistant boys basketball coach from 2001 to 2007.

The Colonels were the regional finalist five times in six years during his tenure at Henderson County.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Fisher played one season at Brescia University, and he was a four-year varsity player for Henderson County. He was an honorable mention All-State, All-District, and All-Region performer at Henderson County and helped the Colonels to a pair of Kentucky State Tournament Final Four appearances.

Fisher earned a bachelor’s degree in physical education from USI in 2004 and will be working toward a Master’s of Science degree in education.
The USI men's basketball program is a major part of the Evansville community, taking on many charity and community service projects.

(Above) Head Coach Rick Herdes speaks to many organizations in the Evansville area, helping to promote charity fund-raising events and community involvement.

(Top Right) Junior George Cunningham helps kids in an after-school tutoring program, one of several programs that USI student-athletes are involved in each year.

The University of Southern Indiana men’s basketball teams have traveled the continental United States and beyond since 1990. USI has played regular-season games, regular-season tournaments, and post-season contests in Alaska, Arkansas, the Bahamas, California, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, Nevada, Ohio, Tennessee, and Wisconsin.

USI has played in the prestigious Division II Tip-Off Classic at Disney’s Wide World of Sports in Orlando, Florida, four times. The Eagles also have played in the High Desert Classic in Las Vegas, Nevada, four times.

In November 2005, the Screaming Eagles became the first team to win the Disney Division II Tip-Off Classic for a second time. Last year, they became the first team to win the tournament in back-to-back seasons.

During the last 28 years, the University of Southern Indiana men’s basketball program has become a force in the Great Lakes Valley Conference, the Great Lakes Region, and at the national level.

Since the beginning of the GLVC in 1979, the Screaming Eagles have become one of the premier teams in the league, winning 12 regular-season titles in the GLVC. USI’s teams also have featured four GLVC Coaches of the Year and six conference Players of the Year.

Starting with the 1992-93 USI team, the Eagles have made their mark on the Great Lakes Region and the NCAA Division II. USI has won 20 or more games 16 times in the last 17 years, including the last 15 seasons, and averaged more than 25 victories a year since 1993-94.

The Eagles stepped into the national spotlight in 1993-94 when they made their first trip to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight and the NCAA Division II Championship game.

The loss in the 1994 championship game propelled USI back into the NCAA Division II Championship game in 1995, and on to its first-ever national championship.

USI has been ranked number one nationally at one point during the season in eight of the last 14 years and has been to the NCAA Division II Sweet 16 nine times in the last 16 years.

*2007-08 opponents listed in bold.

Former Head Coach Bruce Pearl led the Screaming Eagles to a 231-46 record during his nine seasons at USI. Pearl lead USI to nine straight NCAA II Tournament appearances, back-to-back showings in the NCAA II Championship Game, and the 1995 national championship.

Joe Gordon's shot in the closing seconds lifted the Eagles to an 83-81 upset of top-ranked Metro State and into the national championship game of the 2004 NCAA II Elite Eight.
Marc Hostetter finished his career as USI’s all-time leader with 498 career assists. Hostetter helped guide the Eagles to two NCAA II Championship appearances as a player and one as a coach.

The University of Southern Indiana men’s basketball tradition got its start in 1965 when the school, then known as Indiana State University-Evansville, sponsored basketball as a club sport. USI’s first official year as a varsity men’s basketball team would come five years later when it changed its nickname from the Spartans to the Screaming Eagles. Pictured above is USI’s 1970-71 team, the first varsity athletic team in school history.
The Screaming Eagles long tradition of winning may have started early, but it was the 1992-93 squad that started a string of nine straight NCAA II Tournament appearances and 15 straight 20-win seasons. Since 1992-93, the Eagles have dominated the NCAA II landscape, appearing in the NCAA II Tournament 14 times, the NCAA II National Championship game three times, and winning the 1995 NCAA II title.
Billy Harris played in 126 games and ranks fifth all-time at USI in career points (1,381) and fourth all-time at USI in career rebounds (782).

After posting their first winning season in 1976-77, the Screaming Eagles broke into the NCAA Division II Tournament for the first time in 1977-78 when they went 19-9. The Eagles’ appearance in the NCAA post-season tournament was the first by any team in school history. Then known as Indiana State University-Evansville, ISUE defeated Northern Kentucky University in the first round before falling to Eastern Illinois University.
Brian Huebner’s performance in the 1995 Elite Eight nettled him All-Tournament honors and helped the Screaming Eagles capture their first-ever national championship in any sport.

Since the 1992-93 season, USI has been one of the top programs in the country, amassing a record of 404-98 (.805), appearing in 14 NCAA II Tournaments, three Elite Eights, and winning the national championship in 1995.
The 13-member Great Lakes Valley Conference has made its name throughout the last 30 years as a power in NCAA Division II basketball. In the last few years, however, the GLVC has seen success in many sports, and the league can now claim itself as one of the nation’s top in all NCAA Division II athletics.

The formation of the GLVC can be traced as far back as 1972 when the athletic directors of three member schools - Kentucky Wesleyan, Bellarmine and Indiana State University at Evansville (now the University of Southern Indiana) - began preliminary discussions about forming a basketball conference. Four years later, the University of Indianapolis and Saint Joseph’s College expressed interest. On July 7, 1978, those schools - along with Ashland University - united to become the GLVC.

The conference headquarters are located in downtown Indianapolis, one of the many Midwest major media markets in which the league maintains a presence. The GLVC has schools in Milwaukee/Northern Illinois (UW-Parkside), Chicago (Lewis), Indianapolis (Indiana), Cincinnati (Northern Kentucky), Louisville (Bellarmine), Evansville (Southern Indiana), Springfield, Mo. (Drury), Owensboro (Kentucky Wesleyan), Kansas City (Rockhurst) and St. Louis (UM-St. Louis).

The conference sponsors 17 championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, indoor and outdoor track and field, and tennis for men and women, basketball, cross country, softball, soccer, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, golf, and volleyball for women.

GLVC institutions have won 11 national championships in basketball. Kentucky Wesleyan leads all Division II institutions with eight men’s basketball titles, while Southern Indiana won the men’s crown in 1995 and finished as the runner-up in the 2004 tournament. Northern Kentucky’s women won the school’s first-ever basketball national championship in 2000 and followed with a national title in 2008. In addition, SIU Edwardsville became the first GLVC school to win a national championship in softball in 2007.

In 2001, the league announced the creation of the GLVC Hall of Fame, with the first class being inducted in 2002. The GLVC annually presents the Richard F. Scharf Paragon Award to the top male and female student-athlete in the league, and the Bertram Award to a distinguished alum who both succeeded while a GLVC student-athlete and excelled in accomplishments after graduation.

The GLVC strives to adhere to the NCAA Division II Strategic Platform and has introduced several initiatives in recent years including the GLVC Sportsmanship Award which was awarded to Northern Kentucky in 2007-08.

The league continually maintains an effort to combine academic and athletic excellence and the hard work put forth by the student-athletes has been evident on the playing fields and in the classrooms.
