The University of Southern Indiana softball team enters the 2007 season with its sights set on a GLVC title and the NCAA II National Championship.

After coming up an out shy of advancing to the championship of the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Tournament a year ago, the Screaming Eagles have reason to believe 2007 will be special.

Sixth-year Head Coach Sue Kunkle brings back a wealth of talent after leading the Eagles to a 39-18 overall record and a 17-5 mark in the GLVC. Kunkle was named the 2006 GLVC Coach of the Year after her Eagles finished second in the GLVC regular-season standings.

USI's NCAA II Great Lakes Region Tournament berth in 2006 was the first for the Eagles since 1998. The Eagles won their first two games, defeating Wayne State University, 7-0, and West Virginia Wesleyan College, 1-0, before falling to Northern Kentucky University, 11-8, and Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, 9-0.

The Eagles' run in the post season saw them earn a final national ranking of 22nd.

Leading the Eagles into 2007 are four seniors that include second baseman Audra Lindenschmidt, first baseman/third baseman Jenn Mullikin, and outfielder Nikki Nichols, and catcher Lisa Anderson.

Lindenschmidt, who started all 57 games for the Eagles in 2006, became a major factor in the middle of USI's line-up as a junior. She finished with a career-best .330 batting average and 37 runs batted in.

Mullikin stepped in at first base a year ago after injuries forced Kunkle to change up her defensive line-up. She proved to be a solid defensive asset for the Eagles as she recorded a .977 fielding percentage. Mullikin also had career-highs in batting average (.167), runs batted in (10), and home runs (3).

Nichols saw action in the outfield, as a pitcher, and as a catcher as a junior in 2006. She played in 45 games, making 34 starts, and hit .257 with a career-high 11 RBIs.

Anderson, who sat out 2006 after a knee injury ended her year prior to the season-opener, is a two-time All-GLVC and All-Region performer that enters 2007 with a .343 batting average, 54 career RBIs, and nine career home runs.

Third baseman Kristin Eickholt and outfielder/pitcher Kathy Wood lead a talented class of six juniors.

Eickholt was one of the top players in the GLVC a year ago, earning second-team All-Conference honors after leading USI and ranking fifth in the league with 45 RBIs. Eickholt, who hit .343 as a sophomore, also led the GLVC with a single-season school-record 21 doubles to go along with four home runs.

Her defensive play at the hot corner also was solid as she posted a .949 fielding percentage en route to earning second-team All-Great Lakes Region honors.

Wood is coming off a break-out season that saw her earn second-team All-Great Lakes Region and second-team All-GLVC honors as a sophomore in 2006. She led USI and ranked sixth in the GLVC with a .392 batting average and ranked second on the team and fifth in the league with 45 runs scored.

Batting second in the line-up in 2006, Wood was third in the conference with a team-high 16 sacrifice bunts. She also led the team with 14 stolen bases.

Kunkle is counting on three junior college transfers and one NCAA Division I transfer to fill the voids left by four departing seniors.

New to the Eagles are junior pitchers Amy Harrison and Stephanie Schneider, junior catcher/utility player Courtney Bates, and junior infielder/outfielder Kirsten Morgan.
Sophomore outfielder Lacey Ligmanowski (right), junior outfielder Kathy Wood (middle), and junior third baseman Kristin Eickholt (left) represented the top of the order for the Screaming Eagles in 2006. Ligmanowski hit .347 with 23 RBIs, five home runs, and 48 runs scored as a lead-off hitter, while Wood hit .392 with 45 runs scored, and 18 sacrifices. Eickholt hit .343 with 45 RBIs, four home runs, and a school-record 21 doubles.

Harrison transferred to USI after spending her first two collegiate seasons at Florida State University where she was a member of the 2004 ACC and regional championship team that placed fifth at the NCAA I Women's College World Series. She was the Florida Class 2A Area Player of the Year as a senior at Chipley High School after posting a 24-2 record with a 0.09 ERA. Harrison also was the Florida Class 5A Area Player of the Year as a junior at Southside High School.

Schneider had a stellar career at Parkland College where she posted a 30-5 overall record with a 0.88 ERA in two seasons. She was the 2006 NJCAA I Region XXIV Player of the Year after posting a 16-3 record with a 0.54 ERA to go with a .424 batting average, five home runs, and 29 RBIs.

Bates and Morgan helped Wabash Valley Junior College to a 97-11 record and back-to-back Great Rivers Athletic Conference championships. Bates hit .304 with 12 RBIs and a home run in two seasons at WVJC to earn second-team NJCAA I All-Region XXIV honors as a freshman.

Morgan was a two-time All-Region XXIV and All-GRAC performer at WVJC after hitting .375 with 46 RBIs, 104 runs, and 24 stolen bases in two seasons. She hit .382 as a freshman to help Wabash to 42 consecutive victories and the NJCAA I Region XXIV title in 2005.

Sophomore outfielder Lacey Ligmanowski and sophomore shortstop Ally McKinley were key factors for the Eagles during their freshmen campaigns. Ligmanowski hit .347 with 23 RBIs, 10 doubles, two triples, and five home runs as a freshman in 2006. USI's lead-off hitter led the team and was tied for second in the GLVC with 48 runs scored.

McKinley, who is making the transition from centerfield to shortstop this season, showed flashes of brilliance during her freshman campaign. She hit .219 with 20 RBIs, 11 doubles, a triple, and five home runs as a freshman in 2006. USI's lead-off hitter led the team and was tied for second in the GLVC with 48 runs scored.

Kunkle is expecting big things from her freshman class. Making their collegiate debuts in 2007 is pitcher/utility player Kambria Current, catcher/utility player Tara McConnell, utility player Brooke Pennington, and outfielder/utility player Lindsay Raikes.

Current graduated from Scecina Memorial High School where she was a member of three district championship squads as well as the 2005 and 2006 regional championship teams.

Pennington came to USI from Harrison High School where she was a two-time All-State and three-time All-SIAC performer, while Rakes earned All-County and All-Conference honors as a junior and senior in both softball and basketball.

The Eagles begin one of their toughest schedules in recent memory February 16-17 at the West Georgia Invitational. The Eagles also compete in the Alabama-Huntsville Charger Chillout February 23-25, the Division II Rebel Spring Games March 4-10, the Great Lakes Regional Showdown March 17-18, and the X-Trem Graphics Classic April 13-15.

USI starts GLVC play with home doubleheaders against Missouri-St. Louis March 24 and Quincy March 25. The Eagles also host Kentucky Wesleyan (non-conference), Northern Kentucky, Bellarmine, Saint Joseph’s, and Indianapolis.

In addition to non-conference road games at Oakland City and NCAA I foe Morehead State, the Eagles travel to Lewis, Wisconsin-Parkside, Southern Illinois Edwardsville, Missouri-Rolla, Rockhurst, and Kentucky Wesleyan.
