...a modern, technology-enhanced ENVIRONMENT

USI is a vibrant campus with modern facilities and an exciting pace of growth. Since the first campus building (Wright Administration Building) opened in 1969, the face of the campus has continued to change, providing the most up-to-date facilities for academics, housing, and student life. Facility development at USI keeps students and faculty equipped with the resources they need, including the best in advanced teaching and learning technology for classrooms and laboratories.

Computer Services
Computer labs are located throughout campus and in the housing areas. Wireless service is available in all main buildings and the surrounding courtyards.

All residence life areas are equipped with network jacks for Internet access. Wireless network also is available throughout the housing areas.

Eagle Access Card
Students use the Eagle Access Card as an identification card and as an all-in-one card for student services such as library privileges, meal plans, vending and copy machines, and access to the Recreation and Fitness Center.

MyUSI
MyUSI is a portal to Web services. Students check e-mail, register online, view their grades, and access other services through this secure Web site.

Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall was appointed to the position of director of Athletics in January 2002, after seven years as the assistant director of Athletics.

Under his direction, USI was the 2003-04 GLVC All-Sports and Commissioner's Cup winner and host of the 2004 NCAA Division II Cross Country National Championships.

In addition to his duties as director of Athletics, Hall also is the chair of the NCAA Division II men's and women’s tennis committee. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional women's basketball committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men's tennis coach.

As the men’s tennis coach, no one did it better in the GLVC than Hall. He was named the GLVC Coach of the Year five times, directed the Screaming Eagles to four GLVC regular-season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns, and had a 123-47 record (.724).

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to their third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament and their first victory in the post-season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with their first two invitations to the NCAA II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall came to USI after his appointment at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fundraising and promotional activities.

The native of Murray, Kentucky, is a 1990 cum laude graduate of Murray State University, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional woman's basketball committee.

While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

In 1998-99, he completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program at the University of South Carolina and the University of Notre Dame.

Hall and his wife Patti reside in Evansville and have four sons, Nathan, Garland, Ty, and Owen, and daughter, Mary Claire.

USI Athletic Support Staff
Location
The University of Southern Indiana was founded Evansville in 1965. USI is a comfortable drive from the major metropolitan centers of Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, and St. Louis.

The Campus
The Nursing and Health Professions Center, Science Center, Wright Administration Building, the Education Center, and the Orr Center are located on the north side of campus. Rice Library, the University Center, the Liberal Arts Center, the Technology Center, and the Business and Engineering Center, now under construction, form the quadrangle in the center of campus. The Physical Activities Center and the Recreation and Fitness Center, which is undergoing a substantial addition, are located east of University Boulevard, a major thoroughfare through campus. Apartment buildings and residence halls are home to 2,700 students who live on campus.

Academic Life
The University enrolls 9,939 students and offers undergraduate majors in 70 areas of study. An ever-increasing number of post-graduate programs also are available to students who wish to continue their education. Opportunities are available for service learning, study abroad, and internships.

Campus Life
Outside the classroom, students have opportunities to participate in more than 90 organizations offering co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Special interest clubs, student government, sororities and fraternities, music and drama groups, and other organizations enable the students to enjoy and contribute to campus life.

Residence Life
Students living on campus have their choice of two types of housing. Students can live in standard apartments or in suite-style housing in residence halls which have amenities such as Internet connections, wireless Internet, and cable television. Computer labs, laundromats, a convenience store, outdoor and indoor recreation areas, and student lounges contribute to an efficient living environment that has proven to be overwhelmingly popular to students. Meal plans also are available at the University Center, which is located in the center of campus.

Financial Assistance
USI provides families with an affordable way to higher education. While some families find that they can handle the cost of a USI education without financial assistance, others qualify for need-based financial packages, including grants, loans, and on-campus jobs.

EVANSVILLE, Indiana
...A CITY with urban attractions and hometown friendliness

S ituated on the banks of the Ohio River, Evansville is a mid-sized city that welcomes USI students and offers them plenty of things to do. Roberts Stadium and the Victory Theatre attract students to concerts by entertainers like Nelly, Aerosmith, Kenny Chesney, Kid Rock, and Josh Groban. Traveling Broadway shows and feature performances come to The Centre. For a relaxing walk or invigorating run, the downtown riverfront features a greenway with a wonderful view of the changing river traffic and the Evansville skyline. Movie theatres (including an IMAX) and Swonder Ice Arena draw students together for fun, activity, and fellowship. Evansville's coffee shops, restaurants, and shopping areas also are places where students like to spend time. Less than three miles from campus, shopping centers and restaurants are plentiful on both sides of the Lloyd Expressway. The Eastland Mall area on Green River Road and the commercial centers off Burkhardt Road offer more restaurants and terrific shopping. USI's suburban location in the rolling hills of western Vanderburgh County is just minutes away from all that Evansville has to offer.

The University of Southern Indiana volleyball team will take to the court in 2008 with aspirations of getting back to the upper echelons in the Great Lakes Valley Conference and into the NCAA Division II Tournament for the first time since 2004.

USI returns five starters from a 2007 squad that qualified for the GLVC Tournament for the ninth consecutive season, posting a record of 15-14 overall, 9-10 in the GLVC.

Among fourth-year Head Coach Leah Mercer’s list of returning players is senior Margaret Buschman. Buschman, a 6’1” middle blocker, was second on the team a year ago with 2.70 kills per game and 3.22 points per game. She also was the squad’s second most efficient attacker, racking up a .273 attacking percentage, and was third on the team in blocks per game (0.82).

Mercer will count on Buschman to lead a youthful squad that includes five juniors, two sophomores, and three freshmen.

USI’s junior class includes outside hitter Courtney Bealor, middle blocker Ashley Henricks, right-side hitter/setter Kathi Hindman, outside hitter Jaclyn Johnson, and setter Melanie Pund.

Pund figures to have the biggest impact on the Screaming Eagles’ lineup this year as she takes over the full-time setter duties. In 2007, Pund saw action as a setter, a right-side hitter, a defensive specialist, and a libero. She took over the full-time setter duties late in the season, averaging 11.79 assists per game as the team's starting setter.

Bealor and Hindman will be two of Pund’s top targets in 2008 after solid sophomore campaigns last season. Bealor averaged 2.55 kills and 2.48 digs per game last year, while the left-handed Hindman had break-out performances on the right side, including a 21-kill performance against St. Cloud State.

Henricks continued to be a dominating defensive presence in the middle in 2007, ranking ninth in the GLVC with 1.12 blocks per game. She set a single-season school record as a freshman in 2006 when she racked up 122 block assists.

Sophomore outside hitter Britanni Oliver and sophomore defensive specialist Janae Curnutt will need to become big factors for the Eagles if they are to go deep into the post-season in 2008. Oliver averaged 2.67 kills and 1.51 digs per game during her freshman campaign, while Curnutt, who averaged 2.22 digs per game in 2007, came on strong in the last six matches as she recorded double-figure dig totals in four of those contests.

USI’s freshman class includes setter/defensive specialist Stephanie Berg, defensive specialist Krista Coccaro, and middle blocker/outside hitter Taylor Reed.
Reed earned All-City and All-District honors as a senior at Whitmer High School (Toledo, Ohio) and played for the prestigious 18-1 Toledo Volleyball Club this past spring.

Coccaro made a name for herself in the club ranks where she participated in the Indy Juniors program in high school. She played for the Indiana Volleyball Academy 18’s team this past spring and was a member of Carmel High School’s 2006 sectional championship squad.

Berg, a three-sport athlete at Gibault Catholic High School (Waterloo, Illinois), led her squad in assists and serving percentage while earning All-Area honors as a senior in 2007.

In 2008, the Eagles will waste little time acclimating themselves to tough competition. USI starts the year with defending NCAA II Great Lakes Region champion Grand Valley State University at the “Middle of Everywhere” Classic in Rolla, Missouri.

The Eagles also will play 2007 NCAA II Tournament participant Pittsburg State University during the opening weekend before taking on NCAA II Tournament semifinalist Washburn University the next week in St. Louis, Missouri.

Grand Valley State, which won the national championship in 2005, will be one of two former national champions on the Eagles’ slate. USI hosts former NCAA II champion University of North Alabama September 30.

In addition to a tough non-conference schedule, the Eagles will battle through a tough conference that featured four NCAA II Tournament squads last season, one of which has moved to Division I.

The Eagles begin GLVC play as well as their 10-game home slate September 12 when they host Missouri University of Science and Technology. The Eagles host 2007 NCAA II Tournament participants University of Indianapolis and Northern Kentucky University September 23 and 26, respectively, and make a trip to two-time defending GLVC champions Lewis University October 3.

USI also has home-and-home series with GLVC West Division opponent Quincy University at home on October 31 and November 1.

In 2008, all sets will be played to 25 instead of 30, with the fifth and deciding set being played to 15.

The Eagles will play GLVC West Division opponent Quincy University at home on October 31 and November 1.

In 2008, all sets will be played to 25 instead of 30, with the fifth and deciding set being played to 15.
USI Head Coach Leah Mercer

Head Coach Leah Mercer ’02 enters her fourth season at the helm of the USI volleyball program after leading the Screaming Eagles to their ninth straight GLVC Tournament appearance and eighth straight winning season.

Mercer's Eagles finished 15-14 overall in 2007 and finished fourth in the GLVC West Division with a 9-10 conference mark. Under Mercer's direction, the 2007 Eagles set season records for digs (2,147) and block assists (450).

In 2006, Mercer led the Eagles to a sixth-place finish in the GLVC regular-season standings with a 17-11 overall mark, 9-7 GLVC. In the Great Lakes Region, the Eagles knocked off eventual region champion Ashland early in the season.

In 2005, Mercer led her squad to a 19-13 overall record and an 11-5 mark in the GLVC. Her squad also posted wins over fifth-ranked North Alabama and 11th-ranked Northern Michigan.

A native of Evansville and a 2002 graduate of USI, Mercer served Loyola University (Chicago) as the top assistant coach in 2004. She helped guide the Ramblers to a 22-9 overall record and a 10-4 mark in the Horizon League. Loyola won the Horizon League Tournament championship and qualified for the NCAA Division I Tournament before falling to the University of Wisconsin in the first round.

Prior to her one-year stint at Loyola, Mercer spent a year as a graduate assistant coach at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio. She helped lead the Bobcats to a 28-5 overall record, the Mid-American Conference regular-season and tournament titles, and the program’s first-ever berth in the NCAA I Tournament.

Mercer, who started her coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Purdue University in 2002, was a two-time All-GLVC performer and helped lead the Eagles to a three-year record of 61-27, including a 49-14 mark as a junior and senior. She averaged 3.1 kills per game during her three seasons of collegiate volleyball. Mercer also averaged 5.9 points and 3.6 rebounds in two seasons with USI’s women’s basketball program.

A two-time All-GLVC performer, Mercer has been a part of 172 victories, as a player and a coach, at the collegiate level.

Leah Mercer ’02 has led the Screaming Eagles to a 51-38 overall record, 29-22 in the GLVC, during her first three seasons at the helm of the USI volleyball program. Mercer returns five starters in 2008 as she looks to put USI back at the top of the GLVC.
Assistant Coach Andy Riesenberge

enters his first season with the University of Southern Indiana volleyball program. He assists Head Coach Leah Mercer in all aspects of the USI volleyball program.

Riesenberge most recently served as the director of Volleyball Operations at the MidAmerica Sports Center in Louisville, Kentucky. His duties included directing adult leagues, high school and club tournaments, camps, a youth program, and advertising.

A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Riesenberg has an extensive background at the club level, where he has coached in Louisville, Chicago, and Cincinnati. He most recently coached for the Mid-America Volleyball Association (MAVA) and the Presentation Academy, leading the 18-Blue squad to three third-place tournament finishes and the 18-Elite squad to five top-10 tournament finishes. His 18-Blue squad ended the season with a top-15 regional ranking and was in the top 15 of the Junior Volleyball Directors Association.

During his coaching career, Riesenberge coached players that gone on to play at schools such as The Ohio State University, the University of South Florida, the University of Cincinnati, the University of Louisville, and Bellarmine University.

“Andy brings a lot of experience to the program and has some great accomplishments under his belt,” Mercer said. “His experience at the club level will be an asset to USI volleyball.”

Riesenberge earned a bachelor’s degree in business administration from the College of Mount St. Joseph in 2003.

27. Former Head Coach Katie Loyer led the Screaming Eagles to their best record in school history in 2000. USI finished the year 27-4, advancing to the first of five straight GLVC Tournament championship games.
Chelse Doubler earned All-Region honors as a senior when she averaged 3.91 kills per game, while attacking at a .295 clip in 2006. She was the ninth player in school history to reach 1,000 career kills, finishing with 1,099.

Emily Ryan averaged 3.65 kills and 1.96 digs per game during her junior year in 2005 en route to earning All-Region honors. She became the eighth player in school history to reach 1,000 career kills, finishing with 1,191 during her four years in a USI uniform.
Leanne Gross ’06 helped the Screaming Eagles to two GLVC championships during her four-year career at USI. She earned All-GLVC honors three times and finished second on USI’s all-time list with 1,513 career kills.

The 2004 Screaming Eagles went 24-7 overall and 15-1 in the GLVC en route to their second conference title and NCAA II Tournament berth in three years.
Stephanie Wilson, who became the third player to earn Academic All-America honors in the program’s history, finished her career with 4,602 assists and 955 digs. She ranks second all-time at USI in assists and ninth in digs.

Mandy Probst ‘08, who earned All-GLVC honors as a sophomore in 2004, finished her career as USI’s all-time leader in career digs (1,490). She set USI’s single-season record when she racked up 475 digs during the Screaming Eagles’ 2004 GLVC championship run.
Former Head Coach Craig Bere led the Screaming Eagles to their first GLVC Tournament title and NCAA II Tournament appearance in 2002. Bere also steered the Eagles to within three points of a second-straight title in 2003.

The 2002 Screaming Eagles became the first USI volleyball team to qualify for the NCAA II Tournament by sweeping rival Northern Kentucky University in the GLVC Championship match. USI defeated Lewis University in the first round of the NCAA II Tournament before falling to eventual regional champion Grand Valley State University in four games.
The newly renovated Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 29 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

The center court of the PAC has been the setting for many games of regional and national interest during the past 14 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men’s NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 1998 women’s GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women’s NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 and 2004 GLVC Volleyball Tournaments.

A true home court, the USI men’s basketball team has a 357-57 home record since 1993-94, a .862 winning percentage.

In 2006-07, the PAC underwent renovations that included three new wood courts and a new center-court design that incorporated USI’s athletic logo. The renovation also featured a new scoreboard and video board, new portable goals, and new seating. Among the changes to the seating were padded chairback seats and back-supported bleacher seats.
