USI is a vibrant campus with modern facilities and an exciting pace of growth. Since the first campus building (Wright Administration Building) opened in 1969, the face of the campus has continued to change, providing the most up-to-date facilities for academics, housing, and student life. Facility development at USI keeps students and faculty equipped with the resources they need, including the best in advanced teaching and learning technology for classrooms and laboratories.

Computer Services

Computer labs are located throughout campus and in the housing areas. Wireless service is available in all main buildings and the surrounding courtyards.

All residence life areas are equipped with network jacks for Internet access. Wireless network also is available throughout the housing areas.

Eagle Access Card

Students use the Eagle Access Card as an identification card and as an all-in-one card for student services such as library privileges, meal plans, vending and copy machines, and access to the Recreation and Fitness Center.

MyUSI

MyUSI is a portal to Web services. Students check e-mail, register online, view their grades, and access other services through this secure Web site.

Facility Development (1995-2006)

- Health Professions Center (1995)
- Liberal Arts Center (1999)

Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall was appointed to the position of director of Athletics in January 2002. He moved into the position after spending seven years as the assistant director of Athletics. He is USI's second director of Athletics.

Under his direction, USI was the 2003-04 GLVC All-Sports and Commissioner's Cup winner and host of the 2004 NCAA Division II Cross Country National Championships.

In addition to his duties as director of Athletics, Hall also is the chair of the NCAA Division II men's and women's tennis committee. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional women's basketball committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men's tennis coach.

As the men's tennis coach, no one did it better in the GLVC than Hall. He was named the GLVC Coach of the Year five times, directed the Screaming Eagles to four GLVC regular-season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns, and had a 123-47 record (.724).

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to their third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament and their first victory in the post-season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with their first two invitations to the NCAA II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall came to USI after his tenure at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fundraising and promotion activities.

The native of Murray, Kentucky, is a 1990 cum laude graduate of Murray State University, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

In 1998-99, he completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program at the University of South Carolina and the University of Notre Dame.

Hall and his wife Patti reside in Evansville and have two sons, Nathan and Garland, and a daughter, Mary Claire.

Founded in 1965, the University of Southern Indiana is located in Evansville, the state’s third-largest city. From its picturesque site on the Ohio River, Evansville is a comfortable drive from the major metropolitan areas of Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, and St. Louis.

The University enrolls 10,025 students and offers undergraduate majors in 70 areas of study. Ten graduate degree programs also are available.

Beyond the classroom, students have opportunities to participate in more than 90 organizations offering co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Special interest clubs, student government, sororities and fraternities, music and drama groups, and other organizations enable the students to enjoy and contribute to campus life.

USI offers two kinds of housing. One is the conventional apartment and the other is suite-style housing in a residence hall. Computer labs, laundromats, a convenience store, outdoor recreational areas, and student lounges contribute to an efficient living environment that has proven overwhelmingly popular with students. A meal plan is available in the University Center. More than 3,000 students live on campus.

USI is an affordable higher-education institution and some families find that they can handle the cost of a USI education without financial aid. Many others qualify for need-based financial aid packages, including grants, loans, and jobs.

...A CITY with urban attractions and hometown friendliness

Situated on the banks of the Ohio River, Evansville is a mid-sized city that welcomes USI students and offers them plenty of things to do. Roberts Stadium and the Victory Theatre attract students to concerts by entertainers like Nelly, Aerosmith, Kenny Chesney, Kid Rock, and Josh Groban. Traveling Broadway shows and feature performances come to The Centre. For a relaxing walk or invigorating run, the downtown riverfront features a greenway with a wonderful view of the changing river traffic and the Evansville skyline. Movie theatres (including an IMAX) and Swonder Ice Arena draw students together for fun, activity, and fellowship. Evansville’s coffee shops, restaurants, and shopping areas also are places where students like to spend time. Less than three miles from campus, shopping centers and places to eat are plentiful on both sides of the Lloyd Expressway. The Eastland Mall area on Green River Road and the commercial centers off Burkhardt Road offer more restaurants and terrific shopping. USI’s suburban location in the rolling hills of western Vanderburgh County is just minutes away from all that Evansville has to offer.

Quiet confidence surrounds Eagles in 2006-07

There is a quiet confidence surrounding the University of Southern Indiana women’s basketball team as it heads into the 2006-07 season.

For the first time in Head Coach Rick Stein’s seven-year career at the helm of the USI women’s basketball program, the Screaming Eagles are returning more than 60 percent of the previous year’s scoring output. The two times USI has returned more than 50 percent of the previous year’s scoring output under Stein, the Eagles have either advanced to the NCAA II Elite Eight or played for an NCAA II Great Lakes Regional championship.

USI, which was 15-15 overall, 7-12 GLVC, returns its top two leading scorers in junior forward Jasmine Baines and senior guard Katie Thiesenhusen. Baines, an honorable mention All-GLVC player in 2005-06, was fifth in the GLVC in scoring with a team-high 14.0 points per game (ppg), while Thiesenhusen was 21st in the conference in scoring with 11.6 ppg.

The Eagles also benefit from the return of senior forward Sabrina Brandon, who red-shirted in 2005-06 after injuring her shoulder early in the season. Brandon was USI’s second-leading scorer and rebounder in 2004-05 when she averaged 12.1 ppg and 5.3 rebounds per game (rpg).

Joining Brandon and Baines in the front court is senior forward/center Sarah Buldtman as well as sophomore forward/centers Jessica King and junior guard/forward Marshay Jolly. King averaged 4.3 points and 1.8 rebounds as a junior, while Jolly chipped in 3.0 points and 1.1 rebounds per contest last season.

While Thiesenhusen will continue to be a threat from the outside, the Eagles

Grimaldo and Brittany Neuman.
Buldtman averaged 4.9 points and 3.7 rebounds per outing in her first season with the Eagles, while Grimaldo, who spent 2005-06 bouncing back from a knee injury that cost her the 2004-05 season, averaged 6.0 ppg and 3.0 rpg as a red-shirt freshman. Neuman gave the Eagles a strong presence off the bench as a freshman when she averaged 1.5 points and 1.9 rebounds per contest last season.

New to USI’s front court this season is 6’4” freshman center Jesstina Ditton. Ditton was a three-time All-Conference performer at North Miami High School. She earned All-State honors and was an Indiana Top 100 performer as a junior in 2004-05.

The Eagles also will get versatility out of senior guard/forward Michelle

Numbers Game
USI is returning 65.9 percent of its offensive output from the 2005-06 season. The two times USI has returned more than 50 percent of the previous season’s scoring output under Stein, the Eagles have either advanced to the NCAA II Elite Eight or played for an NCAA II Regional championship.
will gain solid defensive efforts from senior guard Leah Stormont, who played in 26 games as a junior. The Eagles added depth and speed to the back court with the addition of junior guards Missy Glaser and Akiya Alexander. Glaser averaged 10.6 points and 2.2 assists per game while helping Florida Atlantic University to its first NCAA I Tournament appearance in 2005-06. Alexander averaged 4.4 points in 13 games as a sophomore at the University of Wisconsin in 2005-06.

Sophomore guard Asha Jordan also adds depth to the back court. Jordan, who played in one game at the University of Albany before transferring to USI, averaged 9.0 points per game as a senior at Ft. Wayne Snider High School. She earned honorable mention All-Summit Athletic Conference honors while captaining her squad to the SAC championship in 2004.

USI begins its quest for a GLVC championship November 15 when it travels to the University of Central Missouri. The Eagles begin their home schedule in the newly renovated Physical Activities Center on November 21 when they host the University of Illinois-Springfield. They start GLVC play December 2 at the PAC when they host Kentucky Wesleyan College for the first time since the 2004-05 season.

Also making their first appearance in the PAC since the 2004-05 season are GLVC East Division rivals Bellarmine University (January 18) and Northern Kentucky University (January 20).

While the Eagles will play teams from the East Division once, they will play home-and-home series against GLVC West Division foes Drury University, the University of Missouri-Rolla, the University of Missouri-St. Louis, Quincy University, Rockhurst University, and Southern Illinois University Edwardsville.

In addition to Central Missouri State and Illinois-Springfield, the Eagles play non-conference games against Christian Brothers University, Marygrove College, Harris Stowe State University, Wayne State University (twice), and Ferris State University.
USI Head Coach Rick Stein

Rick Stein ’92 enters his eighth season at the helm of the University of Southern Indiana women’s basketball program after reaching his 100th career victory in 2004-05 and his 100th career Great Lakes Region victory last year.

Stein, who is the second winningest coach in the program’s history, led the Screaming Eagles to a 15-15 overall record, 7-12 in the GLVC, last season despite losing nearly 70 percent of his team’s offensive output and nearly 80 percent of his squad’s rebounding output from the previous season.

In 2004-05, his squad battled through multiple injuries to post a 14-14 overall record, 7-13 in the GLVC, and qualify for the GLVC Tournament.

In 15 seasons as an assistant coach and head coach for USI women’s basketball, Stein has been a part of 286 victories (65.9 percent of USI’s all-time wins), four conference championships, three GLVC Tournament titles, all seven of USI’s NCAA II Tournament appearances, and two NCAA II Elite Eight appearances.

In 2003-04, Stein led the Eagles to a 20-10 mark and a 12-8 record in the GLVC. His Eagles returned to the NCAA II Tournament for the first time since the 2001-02 season.

Despite a rough 2002-03 campaign, Stein and his coaching staff brought in a strong recruiting class that set the stage for a return to national competitiveness. In 2003-04, USI had the sixth-best turnaround in Division II, with USI improving by 12 wins from the previous year.

In 2002-03, Stein and the Eagles were forced into a rebuilding year after losing five seniors and more than 60 points and 25 rebounds per game from the 2001-02 squad. With only one returning starter, Stein and his staff had a young team competing for a spot in the GLVC Tournament late in the season and finished the year with an 8-19 overall record.

The 2001-02 season saw Stein’s Eagles win a second straight GLVC Championship and an NCAA Division II Great Lakes Regional appearance with a 27-6 overall record and a 16-4 GLVC record. Stein also has led the Eagles into the national spotlight with his squad being ranked nationally for 37 consecutive weeks between December 2000 and December 2002.

In just his second season with the Eagles, Stein led USI to a 28-4 record and the biggest season-to-season turnaround in school history (+13 wins). Stein, who earned GLVC Coach of the Year honors, directed the Screaming Eagles to the Great Lakes Valley Conference Championship, GLVC Tournament Championship, the NCAA Division II Tournament appearance, and second NCAA II Elite Eight appearance.

In his first season, Stein went 15-12 overall, tying the record for most victories for a rookie head coach and setting the record for best winning percentage for a rookie coach (.556). Stein’s overall winning percentage is the best in USI women’s basketball history.

A member of the WBCA, Stein is a 1992 USI graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration. He joined the Eagles’ program in 1991-92 as a graduate assistant under former Head Coach Chancellor Dugan. He was promoted to head assistant coach in 1994 and promptly helped Dugan and the Eagles to their best season as a varsity sport at USI.

In his eight seasons, Stein helped Dugan amass a 159-73 record with four straight NCAA Division II Tournament appearances (1994-95 to 1997-98) and three Great Lakes Valley Conference titles. The Eagles were the NCAA II Tournament finalist and produced the first perfect season in GLVC history (20-0) in 1997.

A native of Crete, Illinois, Stein was a two-year starter on the Southern Indiana men’s basketball team from 1989-91. During his tenure as a player, Stein helped USI to an appearance in the NCAA Division II South Central Regional in 1989-90 and a win over Division I University of Wisconsin in 1990-91.

Before joining USI’s team, he played basketball at Parkland College in Champaign, Illinois, and earned an associate degree. Parkland finished as the NJCAA Division II runner-up in 1988 and fourth nationally in 1989.

Stein and his wife Kari have a son, Alex, and a daughter, Mallorie.
In 2001-02, Head Coach Rick Stein led the Screaming Eagles to their second straight Great Lakes Valley Conference Tournament title.

In 15 seasons with the USI women’s basketball team, eight as an assistant and seven as head coach, Stein has been a part of 286 Eagle victories, seven NCAA II Tournament appearances, four regular-season GLVC titles, and a record three GLVC Tournament championships.

Stein has been a part of 65.9 percent of USI’s all-time victories.

In just his second season, Stein was voted the GLVC Coach of the Year after leading USI to a 28-4 record and both the GLVC regular-season and tournament championships.

Stein, who led USI to its second NCAA II Elite Eight appearance in 2000-01, ranks second all-time at USI with 112 career victories and is just the third coach in the program’s history to reach the 100-win plateau.
Michelle Irwin enters her first season with the USI women's basketball team. She will assist in all aspects of the USI women's basketball program.

Michelle Irwin comes to USI from Ashland University, where she was a graduate assistant since 2004. She helped the Ashland Eagles to an NCAA II Tournament appearance, two Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference South Division titles, and two 20-win seasons.

Prior to Ashland, Irwin got her coaching start at St. Catharine College during the 2003-04 season. She helped in recruiting, player development, and scouting reports while at SCC.

Irwin played for USI Head Coach Rick Stein from 1999-02 and was part of the Screaming Eagles' back-to-back GLVC Tournament championship teams. USI amassed a 70-22 mark, 43-17 in the GLVC, during Irwin's three seasons in a USI uniform. The Eagles also appeared in the NCAA II Tournament twice.

The Louisville, Kentucky, native averaged 5.9 points and 4.6 rebounds per game for the Eagles, including a career-best 7.9 points and 5.5 rebounds during USI's NCAA II Elite Eight run in 2000-01.

Irwin earned a bachelor's degree in marketing with a minor in international business from the University of Louisville in 2004. She graduated with a master's degree in sports sciences from Ashland in December 2005.

Melissa Gray, Manager

Melissa Gray is a native of Gary, Indiana, and is entering her third season as a manager for the women's basketball team.

Lauren McNulty, Manager

Lauren McNulty is a native of Zionsville, Indiana, and is entering her second season as a manager for the women's basketball team.

Ashley Givens, Manager

Ashley Givens, a transfer from Tusculum College, is a native of Russiaville, Indiana, and is entering her first season as a manager for the women's basketball team.
The University of Southern Indiana’s Department of Athletics is in the national spotlight for its athletic accomplishments in the NCAA Division II and in the Evansville-area spotlight as partners in the community.

USI student athletes are among the many volunteers contributing to the success of the Komen Race for the Cure, while the coaching staff is present to help staff the telephones for the MDA Telethon.

The women’s basketball team also conducts free clinics at the local YMCA and volunteers as tutors at local grade schools.

In addition to the national charities, the Department of Athletics sponsors a nationally recognized math program. Eagle Math is an incentive program to encourage young students to improve their math skills. The program is designed around the Eagle Math booklets printed in the first quarter, second quarter, third quarter, and fourth quarter sequence to carry out the sports theme.

As student athletes have to practice to get better, math students are encouraged to practice math to excel in the classroom. A local bank provides incentive for the students. Each student who completes the math booklet is offered a savings account with a $10 deposit.

The University of Southern Indiana women’s basketball team enters the 2006-07 campaign seeking its eighth NCAA Division II Tournament appearance in 13 seasons. The last 12 seasons have not only produced seven NCAA II Tournament appearances, but have seen the Screaming Eagles make it to the NCAA II Sweet Sixteen three times and to the Elite Eight twice. USI finished as the runner-up in 1997.

In addition to its NCAA II Tournament success, USI also has been a powerhouse in the Great Lakes Valley Conference. The Eagles have won four GLVC regular-season titles since 1995 and have won the GLVC Tournament a record three times. In six trips to the GLVC Tournament, the Eagles are a conference-best 10-3.

Note: Since 1994, the Eagles have had five players earn All-America honors.

After beginning the 1996-97 season with a 1-1 record, the Eagles won 29 straight games as well as the GLVC and NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Championship. USI went on to win its first two games in the NCAA II Elite Eight before falling in the national championship game to North Dakota. USI also became the first and only team in GLVC history to go 20-0 in conference play. USI finished the season with a school-record 30-2 mark and finished second in the national rankings.

After missing out on the NCAA II Tournament in 1999 and 2000, the Eagles exploded back on to the national stage in 2001. The Eagles finished the 2000-01 season with a 28-4 mark and won a share of the GLVC regular-season title. The Eagles went on to win the GLVC Tournament championship as well as the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Championship for the second time in school history.

Quick fact: The Eagles have hosted the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Tournament twice. However, the two times the Eagles have gone to the Elite Eight, they have won the regional tournament in the state of Michigan.
Kathy Lauck was the first of five USI players to earn All-America honors since 1994. Lauck averaged 20.1 points and 9.2 rebounds per game as a senior and led the Screaming Eagles to their first winning season in eight years. USI finished the season with a 17-10 mark and a 12-6 record in the GLVC. Lauck, who is third all-time at USI in career scoring with 1,573 points, earned GLVC Player of the Year honors in 1994 and was a two-time All-GLVC selection. She was recognized by three publications for All-America honors.

In 1995, LeAnn Freeland became the second player in school history to earn All-America honors. Freeland, USI’s all-time leading scorer with 2,269 points, finished her career at USI as a three-time All-American. However, her sophomore campaign in 1994-95 stood out as she became the first player in school history to earn National Player of the Year honors. During the 1994-95 season, Freeland averaged 24.4 points and 9.2 points per game. She finished her career as USI’s all-time leader in six statistical categories, including rebounds (961). The two-time GLVC Player of the Year holds 16 school records and was a three-time Academic All-American.

Eileen Weber was recognized by two organizations for All-America honors in 1996-97. She also earned All-America honors for her efforts during the 1997-98 season. In 1996-97, Weber helped lead the Screaming Eagles to a 30-2 record and the NCAA II National Championship game. She started her career at USI by earning GLVC Newcomer of the Year honors and ended it by earning GLVC Player of the Year honors. Weber is second all-time at USI in career points (1,847) and career rebounds (842). She averaged 17.8 points and 8.0 rebounds per game as a senior in 1997-98 and 15.4 points and 6.4 rebounds as a junior in 1996-97.

After a quiet first three seasons, Elizabeth Prewett broke out as a senior during the 2000-01 season. She averaged 15.0 points and 9.2 rebounds per game to lead USI to a 28-4 record and its second trip to the NCAA II Elite Eight. Her efforts landed her first-team All-GLVC and All-Region honors. She also was selected GLVC All-Tournament Team and was named the MVP of the 2001 NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Tournament. Prewett is ranked 14th all-time at USI in career scoring (837) and eighth all-time at USI in career rebounds (589). In 2000, she helped the USI volleyball team to a share of the GLVC regular-season title.

Physical Activities Center

The newly renovated Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 27 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

The center court of the PAC has been the setting for many games of regional and national interest during the past 12 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men’s NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 1998 women’s GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women’s NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 and 2004 GLVC Volleyball Tournaments.

A true home court, the USI women’s basketball team has a 157-48 home record since 1993-94, a .766 winning percentage.

In 2006-07, the PAC will feature three new wood courts, including a new center court design that incorporates USI’s athletic logo. The renovation also features a new scoreboard, new portable goals, and new seating. Among the changes to the seating are padded chairback seats and back-supported bleacher seats.
