Romain College of Business

Romain College of Business (RCOB) Diversity Related Activities/Initiatives in 2017 focused on providing opportunities for learning about diversity.
• Developed partnership between Business Communication faculty and the Multicultural Center to provide programming and to serve as an ongoing resource to students of color throughout campus. Programming began in spring 2017 with a presentation to a group called Collegiate Men of Distinction on the topic of professionalism. Another program being considered is a retreat-like symposium for students of color on business topics in the area of personal finance.

• The Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program (VITA) provides faculty and students with opportunities to interact with a diverse group of individuals with low to moderate incomes from our local community. Over the course of two months (early February to early April) students in the Romain College of Business provide federal and state income tax preparation services for community members who enroll in the VITA program. In spring 2017, students enrolled in ACCT 390 assisted 74 community members, about 10 taxpayers per night. Accounting students interviewed and prepared the taxes of those taxpayers who made an appointment for this service. Preparation of returns typically takes 90 minutes to two hours to complete. Students gained hands-on experience interacting with individuals with diverse backgrounds and upon successful completion of the course, are able to use tax preparation software, interview clients, research tax issues and perform quality reviews of prepared income tax returns.

• Students in CIS 477 Applied Software Development Project helped develop a website for HOLA, a non-profit organization established to enhance appreciation of cultural diversity and promote the successful inclusion of Latinos in the community. In the process, students developed an appreciation of cultural differences when establishing the scope, content and design features of the website.

• Students in MNGT 444 – Managing Diversity in Organizations are actively engaged in exploring the challenges and opportunities associated with diversity within organizations. Over 32 percent of the course grade is connected to diversity-related assignments and a diversity project.

• The RCOB is currently engaged in efforts to expand diversity related activities in Evansville neighborhoods. Efforts include exploring partnership opportunities aimed at fostering business startups and employment growth through faculty engagement. The two areas of focus are (a) enhancing the entrepreneurial mindset in these neighborhoods and (b) investing in financial markets. Implementation of some of these activities are planned for spring 2018.

Enrollment Management

Undergraduate Admissions

The Undergraduate Admissions Office is committed to recruiting and enrolling an academically strong and diverse group of first-year and transfer students. Below are some of the initiatives that focused on recruiting underrepresented students:

- Working collaboratively with Provost’s Office, Undergraduate Admissions has hosted several student groups and guidance counselors from the Chicago and Indianapolis areas. Concerted efforts were made to visit several schools in these areas that have a high population of underrepresented students. This initiative has led to a rapidly developing mentoring program to help these students acclimate to campus and college life.
- Lunes De Latinos - Lunes De Latinos is a special visit day offered each month where students and their families can participate in the campus visit experience completely in Spanish. Students and their families receive a campus tour, admissions presentation and financial aid presentation in Spanish.

• Training for students:
  o Camp Eagle, a three-day long camp for new freshmen, included activities on diversity awareness, including the following:
    ▪ Cross the Line – Power and Privilege
    ▪ Everyday Superheroes – How to be an ally to all people
    ▪ The Spoon Theory – Ableism and Invisible Disabilities
  o AMIGOS (Orientation Leaders) training includes a diversity awareness activity

• Eagle Experience: UNIV 101 (required of all entering freshmen) included content on diversity and inclusion, followed up with a discussion with their UNIV 101 section and an AMIGO and Resident Assistant.

Outreach and Engagement

The Veteran, Military & Family Resource Center (VMFRC)

• The VMFRC is housed in Outreach and Engagement and serves USI’s Veteran, current military and dependent community with services in Education, Job Placement, Behavioral Health, and Community Outreach. Campus services include assistance with the Department of Veteran Affairs education benefits, peer-to-peer counseling; and referrals for counseling with financial, vocational and academic issues.

• As of 2017, USI has 360 enrolled veterans and family members of veterans (i.e. 172 veterans; 188 dependents).

• The VMFRC has been recognized throughout the community for its programs and support of veterans:
  o In July, USI hosted the 2017 Veterans Administration (VA) Mental Health Summit, which provided a professional development opportunity for 115 Veterans’ mental health caregivers and community partners. The learning environment focused on suicide prevention in the veteran population and building a suicide safe community.
  o VMFRC continues to partner with USI Dental Hygiene Clinic to offer free dental events for military veterans. This has received national media attention and continues to grow each year. In 2015, USI served 50 veterans and in 2016, USI served 75 veterans. Today this program proudly serves over 150 veterans of all eras and has been extended beyond the two service days that are dedicated each semester.

Human Resources

Disability Services
During the 2016-2017, Disability Services provided presentations to a variety of internal groups including faculty, staff and students to increase the awareness regarding the range of disabilities as well as discuss challenges and successes USI students have. In addition, two special presentations open to the USI community were provided.

- A Photographic Journey through an Inaccessible World! An interactive presentation by USI’s ADA Coordinator, takes the audience on a return trip through a photographic journey that provides the opportunity to identify common examples of inaccessibility in real-world settings.
- Rare Disease Student Discussion Panel: USI students speak about the challenges they have faced living with a rare disease.

Business Office

Procurement

- The director, Dan Martens, is an active member in the Southwest Indiana Chamber of Commerce’s Diverse Business Alliance (DBA). The DBA creates education, mentorship, and networking opportunities for disadvantaged business enterprises, minority business enterprises, women’s business enterprises and veteran-owned small businesses, while encouraging corporate social responsibility by facilitating access to a high-quality diversified supplier network.
- Met with the Indiana Department of Administration (IDOA) in February to discuss ways of improving the IDOA’s outreach in Southwestern Indiana.
- In February 2017, USI participated in the DBA construction Connection event at the Southern Indiana Career and Technical Center.
- The Procurement department participated in the IDOA’s outreach event at Ivy Tech on First Avenue on May 18, 2017.
- The director participated in a panel discussion at the Indiana Black Expo titled “How to do business with Indiana’s State Educational Institutions” in July 2017.
- Hosted an event titled “Diverse Business Alliance: Southwest Business Connection” on October 19, 2017. This event, sponsored by the Southwest Indiana Chamber of Commerce, provide an opportunity for minority-owned companies to meet with majority owned companies. Companies participating in the event include USI, Skanska, Mead Johnson and Old National Bank. The event had over 50 participants.

The Diversity Committee looks forward to continuing its liaison efforts with the University diversity initiatives and its work on the Committee’s objectives in 2017-2018.
ABSTRACT
Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Science in Statistics
To be offered on-campus only by the University of Southern Indiana, Evansville, Indiana

Consistency with Institution’s Mission:
The mission statement for the University of Southern Indiana states, “USI is an engaged learning community advancing education and knowledge, enhancing civic and cultural awareness, and fostering partnerships through comprehensive outreach programs. We prepare individuals to live wisely in a diverse and global community.” Advancing knowledge in the 21st century requires the design of techniques to collect, analyze, and interpret quantitative data. Furthermore, in order to live wisely, individuals must become critical consumers of statistics. The proposed Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Science in Statistics degree will not only benefit the students enrolled, but has the potential to elevate the entire university community through the availability of additional course offerings in statistics, and the development of partnerships among students and faculty who seek statistical consultation for research projects in other fields.

Relation to Institution’s Strategic and/or Academic Plan:
The design of the program aligns with the goals of the Pott College of Science, Engineering, and Education. The proposed degree will: 1) support the attraction of academically strong students to the University of Southern Indiana campus; 2) enhance student learning and engagement through specific courses designed to permit students to conduct original research; and 3) support innovation in terms of the programmatic offerings in the College. The addition of a degree program in statistics and its associated curriculum will support the Pott College of Science, Engineering, and Education’s commitment to prepare individuals with rigorous and diverse experiences both within the program and across the Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) fields. The presence of a bachelor’s degree in statistics expands USI’s potential to recruit academically strong students, especially among those planning to attend graduate school. These students may complement their degree in mathematics, computer science, or social science with coursework in statistics or earn a second major in statistics.

Curriculum:
Completion of the Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Science in Statistics will require 120 credit hours. These hours will include 48 hours of course work in the major – 18 hours in mathematics and 30 hours in statistics. Completion of the proposed degree can be accomplished in four years.

Employment Possibilities:
Statistics is one of the fastest-growing career fields in the country and in the state. A 2011 report from the McKinsey Global Institute anticipated that “there will be a shortage of talent necessary for organizations to take advantage of big data. By 2018, the United States alone could face a shortage of 140,000 to 190,000 people with deep analytical skills as well as 1.5 million managers and analysts with the know-how to use the analysis of big data to make effective decisions” (Manyika et al., 2011).

From 2003 to 2013 the number of statistics degrees awarded at the undergraduate level in the United States tripled, and the number of master's degrees more than doubled. In addition, majors and minors in statistics complement other degree programs, especially for individuals who are planning to advance to graduate school to conduct quantitative research.

The U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics (2015) estimates statisticians will be the ninth fastest growing occupation in the ten-year period from 2014 to 2024 with an estimated growth rate of 34 percent. Similarly, the Indiana Department of Workforce Development’s (n.d.) Occupational Demand Report estimates that there will be a 39 percent increase in the need for statisticians in Indiana across the same time period. This ranks as the fourth largest change in the state, and the third largest change among occupations requiring a college degree.
